

Roberta L. Woolley Speaks Vows at Home Ceremony, Saturday

At a lovely home wedding Saturday afternoon, December 30 at 4 o'clock Roberta Lucille Woolley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almond Woolley, of Floyd street, spoke her marriage vows to Lloyd Eugene Pollich, of Compton, Ill., son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben A. Pollich. The Rev. Chester A. Sampson officiated.

The house was beautifully decorated with green and white lights and was lighted by candlelight. The bride's gown of white with a satin bodice and full chiffon skirt, which was flecked with tiny satin bows. She wore a yellow gold sweetheart pendant, and earrings to match. Wedding gifts of the groom. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a crown of orange blossoms. She was given in marriage by her father.

Ether Smith, of Chicago, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She was gowned in powder blue taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations. Gladine Woolley, sister of the bride and junior bridesmaid, wore a gown of pink taffeta and chiffon. Her flowers were rose colored carnations. Both girls wore pink carnations in their hair.

Preceding the service, "If God Loved Only You," was sung by Mrs. Edward Meyer, of Farmdale, followed by Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" played by Ralph Walters, of Royal Oak.

Dale Kromm, of Mendota, Ill., was best man.

Mrs. Woolley chose a powder blue street length dress for her daughter's wedding and wore a corsage of rose carnations.

Following the service a dinner was served to members of the family and a few close friends. A reception was held during the evening. The couple have left for their home on a farm near PawPaw, Ill.

Out of town guests included the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allai, of Sterling, Ill.

Mary Grubbs and Robert Wolf Speak Vows December 30

The First Presbyterian church, decorated with white chrysanthemums and gladiolus fern, was the scene of the 5 o'clock marriage of...

Mrs. Robert A. Wolf

Mary Frances Grubbs, daughter of Mrs. Norman S. Grubbs, of Vinewood street, and the late Mr. Grubbs to Robert Arthur Wolf, of Lima, O., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wolf, of Cincinnati. The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated at the candlelight ceremony Saturday.

Mary Frances was lovely in gown of faulxlight satin, trimmed with seed pearls. The dress was styled with a fitted bodice, high round neck and turnover collar. She wore her mother's veil which fell from a Juliet slip of Alencon lace embroidered with pearls. Her bridal bouquet was of white violets and pale yellow orchids. The bride was given in marriage by Henry Hart.

Dorothy Grubbs was her sister's maid-of-honor. She was gowned in peach colored chiffon made with a shirred bodice and bouffant skirt. Her colonial bouquet of lavender violets matched her headdress of peach colored ribbon and violet.

Elizabeth Hart, bridesmaid, wore an aqua dress similar to that of the maid-of-honor and she carried a bouquet of violets in a deeper shade of purple.

Lt. William B. Graham was the best man and Lt. Robert W. Jones and Pvt. Nicholas Martin seated the guests.

Mrs. Grubbs chose for her daughter's wedding a street length dress of violet crepe with a small light blue hat trimmed with flowers to match her dress. Mrs. Wolf wore a two-piece purple dress with a matching hat. Both mothers wore purple orchids.

A reception was held at the Community House following the ceremony. For traveling Mrs. Wolfe wore a green suit and a grey hat and coat trimmed with baby lamb. The couple will reside in Lima.

Thelma Stiebe and John H. Pratt Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Stiebe, of Kinke, Mich., announce the marriage of their daughter, Thelma, to Sgt. John H. Pratt, of Birmingham, on December 23, 1944, in the Kinke Lutheran Church.

Sgt. Pratt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Pratt, of Hanna street, and is at present stationed in Pontiac.

Dolores Jeanne Moses And Charles C. Pirlot Married Here Dec. 30

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moses, of Ruffner street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Dolores Jeanne to Charles C. Pirlot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Pirlot, of Wilson, Mich.

The wedding took place Saturday, December 30, at 1 o'clock in the First Baptist church with the Rev. Melvina W. Crump officiating.

Dolores was given in marriage by her father. She wore a suit of mauve gabardine with alligator accessories and a corsage of green orchids.

Mrs. Robert Edwards, sister of the bride, attended her as matron-of-honor. She was dressed in gold crepe with black accessories and wore a corsage of yellow carnations.

Cheley G. Moses F 1/C, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Mrs. Moses wore a black dress with fuchsia and black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the service a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. A wedding dinner was served to members of the bridal party and family at Adrian Catering Tavern. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moses of Greenville, Ohio; Mrs. L. P. Masters, Mrs. Peter A. Kruehli, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Pirlot, Jr., of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hendry, of Detroit, and Mrs. Robert McLane.

Mr. Pirlot has served twenty-two months in the United States Army. He and Mrs. Pirlot will reside at 711 E. Lincoln, Royal Oak.

Ann Cary Burnham Married Saturday

An event of the New Year week end in snowswept Bloomfield Hills was the wedding Saturday morning of Ann Cary Burnham, daughter of the Elliott R. Burnhams, of Southfield road and formerly Terrace Park, O., and Technical Sergeant Elbert Matthews of the U. S. Marine Corps, of Cincinnati and Walnut Ridge, Arkansas.

The ceremony took place in Christ Church Cranbrook and was performed by the Rev. Charles H. Cadigan, rector of Christ Church Cranbrook and the Rev. John B. Yungblut, rector of St. Thomas Church of Terrace Park, Ohio.

The bride wore only ten days from Carleton College, Minnesota, was all in white with a finger-tip veil and a bouquet of sweet peas, chrysanthemums and baby's breath. She was given in marriage by her father.

The groom was a student at Georgia Tech before his enlistment in the Marine Corps two years ago. His parents, also present for the ceremony, are the Elbert C. Matthews of Cincinnati.

After the honeymoon the couple will live at Walnut Ridge, Arkansas, where the groom is stationed with the Marine Corps Auxiliary Air Facility.

Among the out-of-town guests were the Misses Pat Caldwell, of Owensville, Ohio; Rose Ellen Stephens of Terrace Park, Ohio; Jeanne Cummins, of Terrace Park, and Sewardmore College class mate of Elizabeth Horton, of Birmingham, both of whom extended their holiday vacations to attend the wedding.

Body Culture Class to Resume January 10th

A class in body culture and relaxation, part of the adult education program being sponsored by the Adams' School P.T.A., will reopen January 10 at 8 o'clock. The class, which will run for ten weeks, will be held in the small gym at the school.

Mrs. Otto Enoch, a graduate of a European School of Body Culture, brings to the class each week a planned program for the relaxation of the nerves of the participants.

Other classes under this same adult program are in the process of organization at present. Anyone interested in enrolling in this class is asked to phone 2255.
