Betty Housworth And Stuart Hughes Married Saturday

Betty Housworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Housworth, of Smith street, became the bride of Sgt. Stuart Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hughes, of Kalamazoo, Saturday afternoon, July 14, at the Embury Methodist church.

White candelabra and tall baskets of white gladioli, lupin and feverfew decorated the chancel before which the Rev. Rudolph H. Boyce read the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a satin gown with a lace decollete. Skirt and train were of net. Her veil of fine illusion hung in soft folds to fingertip length from a calot of lace. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, lupin and baby's breath. Lt. Mary Grace Ogden, cousin of the bride and her only attendant, wore a floor length gown of ice blue with a yoke and bouffant skirt of net of a little deeper hue. Her headpiece was a halo of matching net into which was woven a crescent of dabonnet sweet peas. Ribbons of dabonnet fell from her bouquet of various shades of sweet peas. Lieutenant Ogden was home on leave from Bergstrom Field, Austin, Texas.

Lt. Edwin Lambek of Kalamazoo, was best man. Seated the guests were Jack Ogden, of Berkley, cousin of the bride, and Charley Fessenden, of Kalamazoo, brother-in-law of the groom. Soloist was Howard Taggery, who, accompanied at the piano by his wife, Mrs. Vera Taggery, sang "Beaneus," and the Lord's Prayer. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Housworth wore a shadow print dress of blue embroidered in white. Her corsage of pink carnations blended with her hat of dusty rose. Mrs. Hughes' dress was of cameo pink, with white accessories and she wore white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 60 guests was held at the Housworth home. Assisting Mrs. Housworth were Mrs. Robert Beimer, of Kalamazoo, Mrs. Donald Farmer, of East Orange, New Jersey, Mrs. Jack Ogden of Berkley, Mrs. Harold Landeplager, Mrs. Robert Broxton, and Miss Irene Housworth, sister of the bride, of Birmingham. Another sister, Pfc. Marie Housworth, on duty with the W.A.C. at Miami Beach, Florida, was unable to attend.

Shortly after the reception, the bridal couple left on a motor trip. For travel the bride selected a lavender print topped with a butcher boy jacket. She wore an orchid corsage.

Following a 30-day furlough, the groom, who has seen three years of action in the European theater, will report at Ft. Sheridan, Ill. for reassignment.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding festivities were Mrs. Manley Housworth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens and Cadet Floyd Stevens, of Otsego; Mr. and Mrs. George Kidwell and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Walters, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pugsley, of Pleasant Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fessenden, Mrs. Anna Buell, Dr. and Mrs. H. Sidney Heerma and Mr. and Mrs. William Penning and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beimer, Kalamazoo.

Betty Cary Plans August Wedding

Plans are rapidly being made for the marriage of Betty Cary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cary, of Westwood Drive, to Sgt. Ross V. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Martin, of Lapeer. The afternoon ceremony will take place in the Grace Episcopal Church at Lapeer, on August 11 and will be followed by a reception at the Lapeer Country Club.

Mrs. Denis J. Allison, Betty's sister, will be matron of honor. Another sister, Jean Wyckoff, and Patricia Sullivan, of Lapeer, will be bridesmaids. The men in the party have not yet been chosen.

The intermediate division with Pat Newhall directing gave an abbreviated version of "Alice in Wonderland" with Sally Collins, Mary Halliday, Susan Tompoy, Kazin Oldberg, Margaret Ann Perkins, and Alice Shaw. Other plays on the program were Spring Party, with Phyl Keenan directing, Woman of Judgment, directed by Dana Einar, Call It A Day, directed by Terry Hatch, Darby and Joan, directed by Anne Ballentine, Miracle in 3 B, directed by Ruth Mills, The Land in Bright, directed by Nancy Sanders, Sufficient Time, directed by Terry Hatch, First Lady and My Mind Is Me a Kingdoms, directed by Carl Wonnberger, Houdistan, a dance directed by Nancy Neumann, and Next Best Man, directed by Anne Ballentine. Selections from this group were taken to Cranbrook last evening.

Community House Scene of Wedding

Dorothy Ellen McNellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron L. McNellis, of Elm street, became the bride of William D. Van Sickle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Van Sickle, of Detroit, Saturday evening at a service read in the Ruth Shain room of the Community House.

The Rev. A. F. Runkel read the service before a bay window which was banked with white gladioli and abasas' daisies against a background of palms and candelabra. The ceremony was witnessed by about one hundred guests.

For her wedding, Dorothy chose a lime green faille suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses and gardenias. She was attended by Mrs. Victor Kemp, of Detroit, who wore a powder blue, crepe dress and white accessories.

Her corsage was of white gardenias and carnations. Mrs. Van Sickle wore a dress of rose crepe with black accessories and her corsage was of red roses.

A reception was held in the lounge room of the Community House following the ceremony. The young couple took the train to Cleveland for a short honeymoon. They will make their home in Detroit.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's aunt, Mrs. Glenn C. Hopkins, of Kalamazoo, N. Y., and her aunt and uncle and two cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Baker and Evelyn and Betty, of Vicksburg, Mich.

A Lot of Little Things

IN ADDITION to Gifts, Books and Stationery, we have a lot of little things which you may not know we can supply. Staples, they are usually called—things like paper clips, erasers, inks, pens, carbon paper, typewriter ribbons, rulers, notebooks, candies—just a lot of little things; more of which are listed below our signature.

We mention them because, although a lot of folks rely on us regularly for such items, perchance you have just moved here and so would like to know a convenient source for those many things which, though they cannot all be displayed, are always in stock.
