

Many Parties Given For the Carl Bradts

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bradt, of Okemba, Mo., formerly of Birmingham, left Tuesday morning for spending some time with friends here. While in Birmingham the Bradts were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Charlton, of South Side.

Mrs. Bradt was the honor guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. F. H. Fott, Jr., at Orchard Lake Country Club last Thursday, and Mrs. and Mrs. Lyman Craig were hosts at the visitors at a dinner given at the Detroit Boat Club. Wednesday the Bradts attended a subscription dinner at Orchard Lake Country Club, preceded by a cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wren at their home in Detroit.

Guests of the Meyers were Mr. and Mrs. W. Whitling Raymond, Jr. and Mrs. Harold F. Klein, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harold Mott, Jr. and Mrs. Rawson Valle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Wood, and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Peters, of Grosse Pointe.

Engaged

Marjorie Anne Johnston

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Johnston, formerly of Birmingham, now of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Anne, to Edward J. Jancas, U.S.N.R., at present stationed in Florida, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jancas, of Lawrence, Mass. There are no immediate plans for the wedding. The Johnston family are at their summer beach place in Sarina, Ontario.

Normadean La Ra Speaks Vows To Lealand Weldon

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Embury Methodist church on Monday, July 16th at 2 P.M., when the Rev. Randolph H. Boyce, united in marriage, Normadean Mary La Ra, daughter of Mrs. Ethel La Ra, of Birchwood road, and S. L. Lealand B. Weldon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weldon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Wilson Hackett, was gowned in white satin, with a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil was of net. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, feverfew, and fine fern, with ribbon streamers tied with little knots of flowers.

Miss La Ra was attended by her sister, Marjorie Stafford, who wore a floor length gown of white sateen over blue satin. Her shoulder length veil was of blue net, and her nosegay was made up of blue delphinium.

The bride's mother wore a two piece navy, street length dress and
