

Men in Service

Members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps are invited to send us news of the boys' whereabouts and activities. Service men, stationed overseas, are hungry for news of their friends. Even the address of a scout-based inducted man is of interest.

Scouts on guard

A broken street light wastes precious war materials needed at the front.

Recognizing the importance of street lights to the safety of busy Americans, the Boy Scouts in your community are on the lookout for broken and burned-out lamps. By reporting to the Edison Company or to the police, the scouts are calling our mobile patrols to the scene hours ahead of routine inspection. This is another example of the important services scouts are rendering in time of war—for street lights prevent crime and protect the movement of workers, troops, and military supplies. Help your Boy Scouts in every way possible.
