

Interest High As Recreation Season Opens

Birmingham's city-wide summer recreational program was started this week, with early organization of baseball, basketball, and other sports...

Why can't Poppleton Field be developed with regulation baseball diamonds, tennis courts, even shuffleboard and similar games? It would also be an ideal location for a number of other recreational projects...

Work Alone Produces The Basis Of All Wealth

When a person works for a certain quantity of commodities or services, these are sold for so much money, part of this money goes to the worker, part to management, part to investment, taxes take care of the rest...

Summer Camp Will Open Wednesday

Camp Mahan-Goh-Tah-Hee, the Y.M.C.A. Camp at Hales, in Inoc County, will open Wednesday, June 14, with a two-week session...

Local Scouts Have Summer Camp Out

Birmingham Boy Scouts spent Saturday and Sunday at the Scout camp grounds at Royal Oak participating, along with nearly a thousand other Scouts in their big early summer Camp Out...

Gas Stickers For Cars To Be Dropped

Out of the Detroit office of the OPA yesterday came the news that the U. S. War Relocation Authority is dropping the gasoline stickers used to designate types of gasoline rations...

Miss Faye Jasmann Is New Director Of Community House

Miss Faye Jasmann, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, has arrived here and this week assumed her duties as the new director of the Birmingham Community House...

Local Schoolmen Will Teach Summer University Classes

Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent, and Dr. John Springman, assistant superintendent, of Birmingham public schools, plan to teach in university summer schools this season...

Rev. Robert Beh To Say First Mass

The Rev. Robert Beh, C.S.C., whose ordination is presided over by the Rev. Herbert Hubert at the University of Notre Dame last Sunday...

Victory Garden Increase Asked

Acting at the urgent request of the government, new emphasis is being placed upon the appeal to grow Victory Gardens...

Birmingham Aids European Schools With Cash, Supplies

Birmingham has joined the United States in a campaign to aid European children's schools...

Paying Honor To Old Glory On Flag Day, June 14th

The attention of every Birmingham resident is being focused today upon the American flag. This week is being observed as Flag Week and today, June 14, as Flag Day...

Returned To Board Many Business Firms To Have Larger Homes

A number of the business district of this city today revealed that Birmingham faces a very busy year in the real estate market...

City Repeals Its Blackout, Civilian Defense Ordinance

Another evidence that the work of the annual election held Monday re-elected Ernest W. Seaholm to his third term on the board...

Silver Star Given Sgt. James H. Lee

Sgt. James E. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford J. Lee, 622 Ridgewood avenue, who has been awarded the Silver Star medal...

Four Held For Theft

Four Negroes arrested some time ago on charges of theft of canned goods, sugar and other supplies from Mrs. M. G. Mather...

INSURE NOW SECURITY

The Nation's Washwood TUGGERS, Washwood, Adv. 18

E. C. Seaholm Re-elected To School Board

On Monday's Birmingham School District election Ernest W. Seaholm, 856 Kennesaw, was re-elected to the Board of Education for his third term...

Retailers Pushing Hard To Put Bond Drive Over Top

With the Seventh War Loan nearing the half-way mark, local retailers are intensifying their efforts to help put Birmingham over its quota as quickly as possible...

Community House Drive Nears End

The Birmingham Community House financial campaign which has been under way for several weeks is drawing to a close...

Fourth Wangberg Has Left For Naval Duty

David Wangberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wangberg, 1011 First Street, left Monday for his duty at the Naval Air Station, Lakehurst, N.J.

Returned To Board Many Business Firms To Have Larger Homes

A number of the business district of this city today revealed that Birmingham faces a very busy year in the real estate market...

City Repeals Its Blackout, Civilian Defense Ordinance

Another evidence that the work of the annual election held Monday re-elected Ernest W. Seaholm to his third term on the board...

Silver Star Given Sgt. James H. Lee

Sgt. James E. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford J. Lee, 622 Ridgewood avenue, who has been awarded the Silver Star medal...

Community House Drive Nears End

The Birmingham Community House financial campaign which has been under way for several weeks is drawing to a close...

Fourth Wangberg Has Left For Naval Duty

David Wangberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wangberg, 1011 First Street, left Monday for his duty at the Naval Air Station, Lakehurst, N.J.

Birmingham Aids European Schools With Cash, Supplies

Birmingham has joined the United States in a campaign to aid European children's schools...