Miss Underwood Tells Engagement At Tea On Friday

Guests at tea in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Underwood of Major road, Friday were invited to meet bride-elect Barbara Jean

Barbara June Underwood

Denison, whose engagement to Lt. Arthur J. Underwood, Jr., was announced by her parents, the H. E. Denisons, of East Lansing, before Lieutenant Underwood went overseas. Therefore it came as a surprise to all of them to learn that the Underwoods were taking this opportunity to tell of the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, June, to Lt. William J. Shuman, USAF.

Lieutenant Shuman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Schooley, of Lakeland, Fla., and although he had hoped to be here at the engagement party his duties were changed and he is still at La Junta, Calif., awaiting a leave.

A tiny model 12-13 hung over the dining room table with a bridal doll and an officer parachuting from it, told the news of the engagement. A large arrangement of pink roses, snapdragons and stock centered the table at which tea and punch were served.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. William B. Stout, Mrs. Spencer Hopkins, Mrs. John Fisher, Ellen Anderson, Marilyn Adams and Ann Harrell.

Wm. Bell Graduates From Albion College

William D. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bell, 360 Knox street, received his bachelor of arts degree in business administration at the recent annual commencement ceremonies at Albion college. He plans to enter Wayne University Law School in the fall. Bell has been active in campus organizations during his college career, being a representative on the inter-fraternity Council two years, treasurer of the organization and chairman of the annual ball this year. He was senior representative to the Student Council. A member of Alpha Tau Omega national fraternity, he served as president and also as treasurer.
