Senior Swing Out Presented Friday

The semi-annual swing out was presented by the graduating seniors at Baldwin High School last Friday morning.

The program included a review of the high school life of the graduating class; a parody on Brutus' funeral oration from "Julius Caesar"; a juvenile "jenny-jenny" skit; dances by Barbara Foster, Jeanne Heigerson, and Max Carmel; skits showing how girls would play pool; harmonica solo by Wilfred Frizen; a take-off on a classroom scene; locker room scene; piano given by Cora French; violin duet by Jean Kelly and Doris Minkus; songs by senior boys; piano by Fisher and Ted Mansfield; and a duet by Charles Adams on the saxophone and Joe Hardy, piano.

Announcers for the assembly were Marilyn McKinney, Frank Allen, Barbara Fox, Lloyd Harvey, Charles Van Fleterson, and Bob Erwin. The script was written by Barbara Fox and Betty Cady. Ted Mansfield, Jim Starrs, and Molly Weller.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

With the funeral over, Annie takes time off from mourning her husband, the late Edward Winger, to let you in on her week-end's happenings.

Saturday night Annie saw many happy couples head toward Ferndale High School to clap "The Four Squares" on its victory in the Bayshore Bow and Arrow contest. Annie's niece Nancy Allen, Jack Munger, Barbara Fucci, Harry Pomroy, Peggy Jensen, Dick Dunn, Gloria Maxwell, Dave Wambarger, Alice Stauffer, Harry Wagner, Mary Jeanne Forsyth, Bob King, Arlyne Brown, John Dalton, Rachel Kirtz, Bob Erwin, Salton Van Winkle and Chuck Van Fleterson enjoying the old songs.

Exams are over! Cranking is through, and he's sure that you've received the fatal card. The seniors are clutching their diplomas thankfully. They're grateful!

Annie'll be back again next September. Have fun this summer!

Maples and Acorns Each Win A Game

By BILL CURLEY

Because of baseball games postponed Birmingham played a double header with Royal Oak last Thursday, dropping the first game 2-0 and winning the second 6-4.

Bill Jones hurled for the Maples, allowing two hits, walking three, and striking out ten. Birmingham got on base every inning but the sixth but was unable to score.

Wheeler started on the mound for Royal Oak but was relieved in the seventh by Burles. Wheeler allowed four hits, walked none, and struck out eight. Burles allowed two hits, walked none, and struck out two.

In the second game the Maples downed the Acorns 6-4 in a fast battle. Crummett started for the Acorns but was relieved by Pritken, while York took over the seventh and eighth innings. Birmingham got on the mound to the sixth for the Acorns but was relieved by Krause who finished the game.

The Maple nine was again defeated by a strong Port Huron team 2-0 last Tuesday. George York pitched for the Maples allowing seven hits, walking none, and striking out ten.

Cain was on the mound for Port Huron, allowing four hits, walking two, and fanning nine. Port Huron scored two runs in the first inning and one in the third.
