

Rehearsals Being Pushed On Annual All-School Play to Be Given Mar. 22-23

"The Man Who Came to Dinner," is the title of Baldwin High School's all-school play to be presented March 22 and 23 in Baldwin auditorium. The play is under the direction of Miss Ruth Hall with Marilyn Harris as student director.

"The title role of Sheridan Whiteside is being double cast this year with Ted Mansfield and Dana Edgar portraying the caustic celebrity. On alternate nights they will take the part of an English actor, Beverly Carlson.

"The cast, which is working hard with the opening performance only three weeks away, consists of Mrs. Ernest W. Stanley, Martina McKinney, Miss Preen, Betty Cady, Richard Stanley, Bill Kindley, June Stanley, Barbara Foster, John, Lloyd Harvey, Sarah, Patzy,

Books Collected For Soldiers Overseas

The week members of Baldwin High School pooled their efforts to collect good reading material for a contingent of soldiers which is to be sent overseas shortly for two years in a post isolated from civilization.

The book drive which was sponsored jointly by the Girls' League and Student Council started last Friday and ended Tuesday.

Dorothy Davis acted as chairman of the drive and enthusiasm was aroused on through representatives in the classrooms.

The collection of books was carried on at the request of the Red Cross, the committee hoping that Baldwin students would support the drive 100 per cent.

Band, Orchestra In Fine Showing At Annual Festival

At the annual Southeastern Michigan school ensemble festival at Gross Pointe last Saturday members of the Birmingham school band and orchestra, under the direction of Arnold Berndt, performed.

Each solo and ensemble was judged and given a division of one, superior; two, excellent; three, good; four, average; and five, poor, rated on proficiency as related to perfection.

First division was given to Dick Robertson, playing the flute; Mary Kemp, piano; Josephine Connor, piano; Dick Emery, piano; Burton Bronson, tuba; Bill Berndt, cornet; Jim Craig, cornet; Dick Adams, trombone; Price, cornet; Bill Robertson, clarinet; Roberts Connor, flute; violin duo by Doris Minko and Jean Kelly; and a clarinet quartet with Bob Marsh, Clara White, Ralph Dunbar, and Marilyn Kemp.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

It's kids, rejoice or regret, Annie is back! Treats yourself for the worst and hope for the best. Starting with an exciting week-end everyone turned out for the last home game. Seen in a huddle drooping over Royal Oak's Don Marvin, were Dottie Davis, Mary Ann Rainey, Maggie MacDonald, Gloria Berrington and James Collins.

As the saying goes, "the feet's in" or was: Stan Peterson was sporting Jeri Lou Smith, while Bill Crooks and Kenny MacDonald were cheering for their old Alma Mater Collins.

Making a path to the Teen Canteen were Pete Good and Joe Jensen, a toast to our glorious victory. Doing their best at square dancing were Elaine Smith, Bud Brife, Rich Mills, and Max Cornell.

Maples Battle From Behind To Beat Royal Oak

After an uphill battle, Birmingham's scrappy Royal Oak squad defeated the Maple team 36-26 in Fernalde's gym, Birmingham won the 1944 district title.

The Maples, weakened by the loss of Leon Thurston, who has moved to Alabama, and Jim Watt, who has suffered a side injury, must play their best brand of ball if they hope to top Berkeley, currently rated the number four B team of the state.

Berkeley has won 13 games while dropping one against strong competition. They are an aggressive

By TOM WOODHOUSE

A fast moving Birmingham squad will meet its first district tournament test tonight against a highly-rated Berkeley team at 9:15 in Fernalde's gym, Birmingham won the 1944 district title.

The Maples, weakened by the loss of Leon Thurston, who has moved to Alabama, and Jim Watt, who has suffered a side injury, must play their best brand of ball if they hope to top Berkeley, currently rated the number four B team of the state.

Berkeley has won 13 games while dropping one against strong competition. They are an aggressive ball club and can be counted on to fight until the final gun.

The Maples have won six while dropping eight contests during the regular season.

MANY AT TEEN CANTEN

After the basketball game Friday night spectators flocked to the Teen Canteen where they enjoyed square dancing, coles, doughnuts, nuts, milk, and the music of the new records recently purchased. Nearly 300 students attended, and the food was completely sold out.

The food was prepared by the square dancing, accompanied by Doris Thompson at the piano.
