GIRL SCOUTS

By MARGARET BARNEY

This is the birthday week for over a million Girl Scouts all over the world. This past year there has been a tremendous increase in interest in Girl Scouting in Birmingham. Eight new troops have been registered, thus bringing the number to twenty-three. This means 147 new scouts. Since the beginning of Girl Scouting in Birmingham in 1927, 1715 girls have taken part in its program of fun and helpfulness and come out better citizens as a result.

The Penny drive in the spring and Cookie Sale in the fall brought in enough money to maintain the Girl Scout room at the Community House and the cabin at Springdale Park, as well as to finance necessary training courses. The day camps at the cabin were filled to capacity last summer with Intermediates and Brownies. Next summer the camp will be improved by the addition of a telephone and running water both in the sink and flush toilet.

Mrs. Edward Ruslander has recently been appointed Executive Secretary of Oakland County. The job is that of co-ordinating Girl Scout activities and stimulating interest in townships which do not now have Girl Scouting.

Mrs. George Finch has been appointed chairman of Lone Troop consultants of the State of Michigan.

New officers excepted for the coming year at the annual meeting of the council on March 9 are Mrs. Robert Kohr, commissioner; Mrs. E. S. Reid, Jr., county commissioner; Mrs. E. J. Barney, secretary; and Mrs. W. E. Schaffer, treasurer.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO

the Spirit of Home

REMEMBER the "house," before ever a rug was laid . . . when no furniture at all graced it? A cold, bare proposition it was. Then, gradually, that house became home as furnishings made it comfortable and decorations lent it atmosphere.

Let it is true that occasionally a home which on the surface seems inviting and complete, actually requires certain further contributions in order that it may possess the true spirit of home. Sometimes these contributions still needed are Books: shelves of them, chosen to the owners' interests. Then again it may be Lamps: and enough of these, when carefully selected for individual beauty and collective appropriateness, work a veritable miracle toward capturing that indescribable something which pervades the atmosphere of the perfect home!
