Another Big Year Anticipated For Baldwin Thinclads

By JOHN FOLEY
Track and field is off to another good season this spring with 75 boys reporting Monday at a meeting at which Coach Lloyd Cooper outlined a rigid conditioning program. The large squad is starting immediately with regular training and try-outs to be held shortly for the all-state River Rouge Invitational at Ann Arbor, April 14. Well-balanced team is expected with six returning lettermen plus many prospects from the new recruits.

Jug Drive Is On Annual Red Cross

The third annual Red Cross "jug" drive was held at Baldwin March 12 through March 14. Heading the Student Congress committee was Dave Wangberg assisted by a member from each class. Nancy Price represented the seniors; John Bloomstrom, juniors and Austin Jones, sophomores.

Each class sponsored a jug, decorated with class colors, into which donations were dropped. The last jug drive netted $290.60 with the sophomore victors with a total of $109.50.

Birmingham Wrestler Wins Minor Award

The undefeated Michigan State College wrestling team has elected Donald E. Anderson, Tulsa, Okla., as its honorary captain, and the list of letter winners contained the name of Gordon C. Cole, of Birmingham, winner of a minor letter.

Cranbrook Presents "H. M. S. Pinafore"

Robert Bates, director of the Cranbrook-Kingswood production of "H.M.S. Pinafore," gives last minute instructions to three members of the cast. Left to right are: Mr. Bates, Sue Rowe, John Eden, who played the lead, and Linda Gunn, chorus of 105 voices and an orchestra of 25 pieces added to the performance given on Friday and Saturday evenings, March 9 and 10.

New Constitution For Student Council Of Bloomfield Hills High

A constitution has been drawn up for the Student Council of Bloomfield Hills High School. The committee that devised the constitution was Roy Noyes, president of the Student Council; Siglinde Stankovic, Eddie Proctor, and Bud Martin. The constitution will be discussed at the next meeting and then ratified by the student body.

The Red Cross drive held at school during the week of Feb. 22 to March 1 has been completed. The students cooperated fully and the drive was a success. The contributions totaled $125.31.

The eighth grade class, under the direction of Glenn Woodard, gave three performances of the play "Raspberry Red" Friday and Monday afternoons. It was given for the students and Wednesday night for their parents. The cast includes Sheila Flannery as Mrs. Sims, Jim Little as Mr. Sims, Joan Hadley as Hulda, Barbara Bee and Elizabeth Gallego as sons, Dave Tompkins as Red Sims, Joan Wood and Kay McDonnell as Letty Sims, Mike Redfield and Richard Sullivan as Bobby Adams, Tom Daniels as Jack Adams, Marlene Thomas as Carol Clark, Mary Booth and Elizabeth Gallego as Mrs. Clark, Kay McDonnell and Joan Wood as Mrs. Dunn, Tom Tweedale as Philip Braggs.

Barnum Spelling Bee Teams Selected For Match On March 29

Grades 7 and 8 of Barnum Junior High School are preparing for their spelling bee, at which a representative for the school spelling bee will be selected. The bee will be held March 29.

Grade 7 team is made up of James Buchanan, Janet, Martha, Ward Abbott, Joe Rosenberry, Patricia Morgan, Darlene Groves, Adelaide Mitchell, March, B. Kraft, Glenn Emery and James Webber.

Grade 8 will enter this team: Ann Faulkner, Virginia Schaefer, Pete Hartgering, Charlotte Wain, Janet Campbell, Donna Puls, Margaret Jamano, Norma Carnegie, Margie Wilson and Barbara Kinner. The alternates will be Fred Wagner and Elaine Dexter.

In charge are Betty Jean King, Hilda Levin and Harriett Watson. Trade teaching staff and Maude MacMichael, Muriel Brise and Mrs. Helen Lockhart, of Grade 8 teachers.

MORE RED CROSS WORK

Because of the demand, the Girls League of Baldwin ordered enough yarn and soles for the Red Cross last week to make 60 additional pairs of slippers. Thirty students are working on this project, and it is expected after two months that similar pairs of slippers will be completed.

WIN COURT TOURNEY

In a fast but decisive game home room 10, 12A basketball team came through to win the intramural basketball tourney from 10A home room by a score of 23-11. The visitors were the defending champions having won the final game by a score of 19-13 last season. Room 10 was led by Chuck Adams, who tallied 11 points.

CHEERLEADERS PARTY

A party was given for the Baldwin cheerleaders last week at her home by Miss Gerda Hansen, adviser. Cheerleaders Lee Bergstrom, Mary Jeanne Forsyth, Katherine Daeschner, Charles Van Feteren, Bill Schermerhorn, and Lloyd Apple played cards and sang songs. Refreshments were served.

"She Wouldn't" exclaimed one citizen as he stood on the corner and gazed with a little glow of men.

"Yes, you remember our fire department?" asked one. "We used to dress up in red flannel shirts and patent leather helmets."

"Sure thing," added another, "myrris, and that could go down town two or three times a week to answer a fire alarm and his wife wouldn't kick at all."

Tennis Team Gets Indoor Practice

With four lettermen returning from last year's squad, the win tennis team has started indoor practice in Barnum gym.

Coach Lawrence Goodrich is looking forward to a successful year with Bud Gregory, Charles Adams, Tom Cookery, and W. Berra, all seasoned veterans; and Adams and John Berra are newcomers who are practicing with the lettermen.

The team has scheduled matches with Cranbrook, Royal Oak, Ferndale, Pontiac and Grosse Pointe, with others expected to be scheduled later.
