

Personal Events and Social News in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills

Alpha Phi Alumnae Plans April Party

Mrs. Howard Parker and Mrs. Howard J. Liverance are co-chairmen of an Alpha Phi buffet supper party being planned for April 5. Mrs. Sidney Oldberg will be hostess to the group in her home on Puritan road.

At this gathering the group will have its annual roll call for the support of the sorority's project, which is the outfitting of Armed Personnel Attack ships with recreational and religious articles.

In connection with the party the group will have a white elephant sale.

Mrs. W. H. Jackson To Serve As President Of The P.T.A. Council

The Birmingham P.T.A. Council elected officers to serve for the year 1945-1946 at its regular meeting Monday night. Mrs. William H. Jackson will serve as president. William B. Hoffman, father-in-law of Mrs. Jackson, is father-in-law of the group in her home on Puritan road.

At this gathering the group will have its annual roll call for the support of the sorority's project, which is the outfitting of Armed Personnel Attack ships with recreational and religious articles.

In connection with the party the group will have a white elephant sale.

Janet Weber, Hostess At Birthday Party

When Janet Weber's guests left her birthday party Saturday evening they were given a picture of the group attending the party, as a souvenir of the occasion. Janet, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin E. Weber, of Chestnutfield street, was hostess at the afternoon party in celebration of her 10th birthday.

Guests included Ted Hoop, Shirley Abbott, Phyllis Abbott, Tommy Frank, Virginia Townsend, Buddy Brown, Barbara Anne Voorhies, Celia Coffin and Maridelle Knights.

Barbara Foster and PFC. Leo Renault Married Saturday

At a ceremony solemnized Saturday afternoon in Christ Church Cranbrook, Barbara Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. D. Foster, of Quenton road, became the bride of PFC. Leo Renault, USMC, son of Mr. Leo Renault, of Detroit. The Rev. Charles H. Culp read the service at three o'clock before an altar banked with Easter lilies and white stock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and rouselline de soie. The light-filled satin bodice and a row of mousseline de soie scalloped onto the satin and the full skirt was of mousseline. The short sleeves were accented with scallops and she wore long satin mitts with the light-filled satin bodice and a row of mousseline de soie scalloped effect. The bridal bouquet was of white gardenias and stephanandra.

Mary Anne Foster attended her sister as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Doris and Janice Upmeyer. They wore identical gowns of pale blue marquette styled with a yellow hat and gloves. Her flowers were yellow daisies. Mrs. Renault, receiving with Mrs. Foster, was wearing in two-piece dress of navy blue with white trim. Her accessories were navy and she wore a corsage of red roses.

PFC. Renault served 27 months with the 2nd Marine Division through the long series of invasions in the South Pacific.

Recent Bride

Miss Marjorie Frances Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jabe Smith, of Lebanon, Mich., became the bride of Lt. William Howard Breech, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Breech, of Manor road, Bloomfield Hills, at a recent ceremony in Lebanon. The young couple have returned to Lebanon, after having spent their honeymoon here.

Engagement Told At Tea of Lovely Appointments

The names of "Nancy" and "Jim" decorated the tiny tea cakes which were served at a lovely tea in the Thomas C. Wiggins home on Bryn Mawr road Monday afternoon. Thus it was that guests at the tea learned of the engagement of the Morgans' daughter, Nancy, to Lt. James Edgar Davies, U.S. M.G.I., son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Davies, of Glenhurst road.

Nancy attended Sullins College, Bristol, Va., and Jim is a graduate of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Before entering the Marines he was doing post-graduate work at Ohio State. At present he is on the West Coast awaiting overseas duty.

A red, white, and blue floral arrangement in a low crystal bowl, flanked on either side by candelabra with blue tapers centered the attractive tea table, at which Mrs. Edward M. Phinkett and Mrs. Charles E. Letts presided.

Got Something to Sell? Try Eccentric Want Ads.

Couple Speak Vows in Long Beach, Calif.

The Methodist church, Long Beach, Calif., was the setting for the marriage of Genevieve Louise Herman, daughter of Mrs. William Herman and the late Mr. Herman, of Dayton, Iowa, and Albert Bernard Werdehoff, AOM 2/C, U.S.N.R., son of Mrs. Mabel Werdehoff, of Ann street, Tuesday evening, March 6, at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. L. V. Lucas officiated at the service.

The couple was attended by Josephine Sullon, of Detroit, and Harold Compton, Yeoman 1/C of Sheridan, Ill. A reception was held at the Alexander Hotel, Long Beach, following the service. Mr. and Mrs. Werdehoff are making their home at 4921 E. 3rd street, Long Beach.

Bjorklund-Phillips Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bjorklund of Duluth, Minn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Marianne Patricia, to Franklin W. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Edward Phillips, of Hanna street.

Miss Bjorklund is a graduate of North Dakota State College, where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Senior Staff, and Sigma Alpha Iota. Mr. Phillips is a graduate of General Motors Institute of Technology, whose he was a member of Alpha Gamma Upsilon fraternity. He obtained his Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mr. Phillips was recently transferred from the Cleveland laboratory of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics to the NACA office at Washington, D. C.

DON'T FAIL TO READ BIRMINGHAM THEATRE AD Part 2 Today—This Issue

Have You Met . . .

Have you met Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Vise, 1558 Webster street? The Vises moved to Birmingham from Kansas City, Mo., and have bought their home here on Webster street. Mr. Vise is district sales manager for Campbell Soup. They have two children, John Harvey, age 11, attending Adams school, and Miscela, age 3.

Have You Met . . .

Have you met Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Colbridge, who have taken up residence at 420 Waddington? The Colbridges have come to Birmingham from Huntington Woods. Mr. Colbridge is secretary-treasurer of American Cutler & Engineering Corporation. Their son, Lt. Thomas Drecker, U.S.N., is on an L.S.T. ship in the Pacific area. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where he was a member of A.T.O.

Dr. B. D. Campbell
Optometrist
201 THEATRE BUILDING
Phone 2344

MULTIFILAMENT CREPE SLIPS $5
Lace Trimmed - Sizes 32-44

Multifilament crepe, the best slip material available today, is noted for its lasting beauty. Sizes 32 to 44, tea rose only, all are lace trimmed, but the lace hem style, 32 to 40 only.

RB SHOPS
Small Families Apparel
163 N. WOODWARD

U. of M. Alumnae Plans Party Series

During the month of April the University of Michigan Alumnae group will sponsor a series of benefit bridge parties. The local group has pledged $700 for the building of a swimming pool in connection with the Michigan League Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Robert F. Watt is chairman of the committee planning the parties and she is being assisted by Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham, Mrs. L. B. Sappington, Mrs. J. E. Hanna, Mrs. Ralph H. Scheel, Mrs. Hugh D. McLeese, Mrs. Robert Atkinson, and Mrs. W. Clifton Randall.

All of these women are planning to entertain. The complete patroness list will be announced at a later date.

Presbyterian Women To Meet for 1st Time In New Church Year

The eight divisions of the Women's Union of the First Presbyterian Church will meet on Wednesday, April 4, for one o'clock luncheons. At these, the first meetings of the new church year, plans for organization will be made.

Mrs. H. G. Wood, Wimbler road, will be hostess to Mrs. Emerson J. Bowen's group 1. Mrs. E. A. Linden is the new chairman of division 2 and Mrs. A. Thomas Schooley, of Rivenook road, will entertain this group.

Mrs. C. M. Knights, of Larchlea road, new chairman of division 3, will entertain her group. Mrs. Herbert W. Masters, of Ann street, will entertain division 5, the group she is chairman of. Mrs. Charles G. Kintson, chairman of division 6, and her group will be the guests of Mrs. G. P. Hog, Beverly road.

Mrs. E. E. Tremper, of Winthrop Lane, will be hostess to division 7, of which Mrs. F. R. Segbers is chairman.

SURPRISE PARTY
A surprise party was given by A.O.T. last Saturday night for Miss Pat Delahanty and John Danek.

Dinner was served and a scavenger hunt followed by dancing till way past curfew ended the perfect evening for: Nancy Nelson, Sally Leary, Mary Cuchel, Mary McGinnis, Joan Danek, Bill Old, Dave Hase, Harold Welch, Ed Larson, Bob Dittrich.

Vacational Bible School To Be Held

The date for the Vacational Bible school has been set for June 11 to June 22 inclusive. The classes will be held each morning under the auspices of the Council of Church Women, from 9:30 to 12 in the Baptist church.

The Rev. Melvina W. Crump, pastor of the First Baptist church, is general chairman of the school and serving on his committee are the Rev. Max O. Moore, Miss Mary Anderson, Miss Julia Kagin, Deaconess Olive M. Robinson, and Mrs. George Reed.

A special meeting of this committee has been called for Monday evening, April 2, to secure a superintendent and faculty. Anyone interested in this type of work is being urged to call the Rev. Crump.

Have You Met . . .

Have you met Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Cupp, 547 Hanna street? The Cupps came to Birmingham from Philadelphia, Pa. Feb. 7. They have one daughter, Nancy Lee, age 10. Mr. Cupp is an engineer with Firestone Steel Products.

CERTIFIED COLD
fur Storage
STANDARD RATES
Every Fur Garment Is Fully Insured While It Is In Our Store

Birmingham's Only Exclusive Fur Store
Dimas Furs
227 S. WOODWARD AVE. BIRMINGHAM, MICH.
Birmingham Theatre Building Phone 3040

TWO-TO FIVE DAY SERVICE WHEN YOU WANT YOUR FURS

"A Good Neighbor for 30 Years"

Larry (LAWRENCE C.) Howe
for
CITY COMMISSIONER

- 1 Resident of Birmingham for more than thirty years.
- 2 Second generation of taxpaying Birmingham family.
- 3 Graduate of Baldwin High School and Denison University.
- 4 Nationwide experience in youth vocational programs.
- 5 Interested in keeping Birmingham an ideal home community.
- 6 Favors intelligent coordination of city and area postwar planning.
- 7 Trained for 18 years in industry to see and handle major problems involving human relationships such as are likely to develop in Birmingham's future growth.
- 8 Public relations, advertising and business executive for many years.

Vote for LAWRENCE C. HOWE for City Commissioner
Spring Election - Monday, April 2

(This advertisement paid for by friends of Lawrence C. Howe in the interests of good government)