The Golden Text (Psalm 45:5) is:
"The throne of God is for ever and ever; the scepter of the kingdom is a right scepter."
and read the bible citations in this passage (Is. 11:2-3): "The works of the Lord are great, beyond all counting, and His knowledge is unsearchable. His work is honorable and glorious; His righteousness endureth for ever."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures,"
by Mary Baker Eddy, and the following (518): "The divine Principle, or Spirit, comprehends and expresses all,
and all must therefore be as perfect as the divine Principle is perfect."

PLAN NEW HOMES

Plans are underway for many new homes in Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Village, Foxcroft and other residential areas, and a very noticeable increase in building is anticipated as soon as the war is over or near enough over to allow release of building materials. Several pieces of property have changed ownership lately with the new owners explaining they plan erection of modern homes when this time of building is again made possible.

CROWD AT SCHOOL PLAY

Heavy ticket sales brought a crowd of more than 700 Thursday Night, while 375 turned out for Friday night. In second place was home room with 116 with 226 tickets. In third place was home room 10, with 138 sales.

TIN CANS ARE NOW ON EMERGENCY LIST

From all over the nation come reports that there is now an acute emergency on the matter of prepared tin can salvage collection. Paper, rags, glass, and fats are doing a bit better than for some months but now the tin can collection has fallen off.

From homes and business places the Birmingham committee hopes for a noticeable increase in the amount of prepared tin collected this month. The committee asks a special effort be made to save every can possible. Restaurants and bakeries are especially asked to save every one possible.

The collection is made on the last salvage collection day of each month for the various parts of the city.
