Student Dance To Be Event of Apr. 20

The 9:20 Special, sponsored by Baldwin Student Congress, in honor of the basketball team, will arrive at the Baldwin gym April 20 at 8:30 and leaves at 11:45. This year the annual basketball dance presented by the Student Congress will be the 9:20 Special. Modern music in general and the 9:20 Special in particular will be the theme of the dance. With this in mind, a song-writing contest will be held during intermission.

General chairman of the dance is Bill Eade. Student Congress president, has secured Peter Seane's band for the occasion. An added attraction will be the balcony concession with Edith Kendall, chairman.

Other chairmen are invitations: Marty Fox; decorations, Jan Coffey; publicity, Janet Waller; programs, Barbara Tades; cleaners, Don Buck; business, Ernie Anderson; tickets, Ralph Backus. Mrs. Carol Darling is adviser.

A game room will be sponsored by the 10-A class in room 101, with Miss Gerda Hansen, adviser.

Sports Showup

By JOHN FOLEY

At the Hill courts, the Baldwin tennis team is shaping up with veterans Bud Gregory and Charlie Crandell playing its first and second singles matches. The third spot is open as Walt Beers, Tom Cookery, and Dick Adams are striving for single positions.

Fighting out for the double teams are Pete Whitelaw, John Bones, Dick Halsted, Roger Wills, and Dave Benintine.

To provide the thin clads with actual running experience, Coach Lloyd Cooper has divided the track squad into three equal teams, captained by Jim Jensen, Tom Zoellin, and Bill Ott. These teams are creating strong inter-squad competition that is expected to bring the runners up to top form by April 14, for the River Rouge Invitational meet.

Unexpected speed has been found in the legs of Bruce Sandt, who has been swift in the dashes, along with Neil Spicer, although Bruce is uncertain as to the event which he will compete in.

PARTY FOR CHILDREN

An Easter party for twenty underprivileged children, between the ages of four and eight will be given at the home of Betty Young, 348 Fellesley, Saturday. Chairman is Velma Keogh; helping her are Margaret Macdonald, E. C. E. R. Wales, Sally Kriedler, Sidney Van Winkle, Kay Brumbaugh, and Marty Fox.

The children are secured from the Oakland County Juvenile Home, Pontiac.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

By ANN NONYMOUS

Hi Kids, Everyone managed to do the long week-end on a mighty fine starting with Thursday night. "The Man Who Came Dinner" and Friday nights, was the drawing card for Suzanne Spiegel, Mickey Dalaly, and the House, Tom Cookery, Nancy Ball, and Ralph Backus.

Pat Skuse, Dick Kadell, Mary Jo La Tourette, Earl Jagger, Ann Snyder, Tom Woodhouse, Gigis Maxwell, Dave Wanzberg, Nader Allen, Jack Manger, Sydney Van Winkle, and Chuck Van Fletoren. Margie Smith, Jean Lange, Nancy Kotts, Mary Lea Aldrich, Nancy Pierce, Natalie Knight, Harry Black, Norma Jean Swisher, and Ellen Van Wagoner, were seen heartily applauding the play.

Pushing our way through the crowd at the Teen Canteen after Friday's play, we bumped into Charlotte, Miss Jim Jensen, Joyce Watkins, Al Larsen, Lois Brown, Harry Wagner, Jeanne Heigson, and Andy Henderson.

Came Saturday night and the Lollipop Hop, with the kids riding in their childhood, taking lollipops. Donna Polesynski, Jim Plant, B. J. Wales, Jim House, W. W. Wolf, Chuck Adams, Marje Potts, Bob Hoetzl, Mary Jane Stephens, Howard Gans, Diana Heigson, Pete Good, Viva Steger, Howard Love, Jean Craig, and John Dalton, tried concentrating on suckers while dancing.

Other dates were Barb Fox, Jim Watt, Pat Page, John Bloomstrom, Janice Thomas, John Nichols, Gwen Chapman, Gene Dalton, Mary Ann Cabral, Bill Marx, Barry Flores, Larry Pometroy, Elaine Smith, Bob Wolfe, Greta Seabohn, Vincent Hayes, Lois Burson, Jim Hackett, Barb Forster, Bill Eade, Julie Spillman, and Tom Koozery.

More service men than usual seemed to be around. John Gillespie, Dick Buesett, Dick Newell, Wright, Bing Murray, Dave Waddell, and Bill Wyckoff, were some of these.

With the curfew ringing in their ears, the crowd moved on to St. John's for an open house.

Hope you're not too beat out to enjoy next week-end.

I'll be seein' ya, Annie

Boys Win Place On Baldwin's Johnson Memorial Plaque

By BUD GREGORY

Covermen were named to the Johnson Memorial Plaque, Baldwin's highest honor. Bill Eade and Tom Woodhouse were both chosen to receive this award this year.

The Johnson Memorial Plaque is awarded to the best senior student athlete. For the third time in its 15 year history the plaque, which commemorates Coach George F. Johnson, the award was given to two boys.

Bill Eade's major sport has been baseball in which he has received three letters. Kept out of football by injury in his junior year, Bill received a letter in three sports as a senior. Bill is not only a good athlete, but a better than average student. He is 1945 president of the Varsity Club.

Although small, Tom Woodhouse has been an outstanding football, basketball, and track participant. He sparked the basketball team to successful seasons the last two years and helped Birmingham maintain its track championships. He received a letter in football as a senior, though he weighed only 120 pounds. Tom also has a good scholastic average, doing exceptionally well this year at Baldwin.

2 Special Assembly Programs This Week

Two distinctly different assemblies were presented at Baldwin this week.

The assembly Tuesday was presented by Miss Edna Means, dramatic reader, who gave a delightful program of human interest stories, monologues, and character delineations.

Today the annual Easter program was presented with the Rev. Warner Forsyth, guest speaker, and Victor Ulrich, soloist, singing "The Holy City."

The Baldwin choir sang several selections.
