

St. Paul's Cathedral Is Scene of Lovely Wedding Saturday

St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit, was beautifully decorated with large fan-shaped bouquets of roses, lilies and orchids, interspersed with small, soft fall cathedral candles for the wedding Saturday night of Ann Louise Weyhing, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. George Weyhing, of Rivenock road, and Capt. Robert Bruce Leach, son of Capt. and Mrs. B. B. Leach, of St. Clair.

The Rev. Kirk E. O'Connell officiated at the 8 o'clock service, which was followed by a reception at The Statler.

For her wedding, Ann chose a gown of white net and alencon lace, with pearl trim. The net which held her finger and veil in place was trimmed with the same style of beading as was used on the neckline of her gown, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. George Schott, Jr., of Dearborn, attended her as matron of honor and Susan Averill and Ann's sister, Helen, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Schott wore a yellow dress and matching jacket and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of spring flowers with lavender, yellow and peach colored ribbon streamers. Susan wore a similar gown of lavender and Helen was dressed in peach. They carried identical bouquets.

James Downing, of Northville, was best man and Sgt. William Hopkins and Sgt. William Averill acted as the guests, George Schott, Jr. was the soloist.

Mrs. Weyhing chose a long gown of gold crepe for her daughter's wedding, with which she wore a floral hat in shades of red and purple. Mrs. Leach chose a navy blue dress with long matching gloves and her feather hat was fuchsia. Both mothers wore white gardenia and red rose corsages.

Following the reception the couple left for Cleveland. Mrs. Leach chose for traveling a navy blue bolero suit with the navy blue accessories and honeymoon concert. They will honeymoon at St. Clair.

Victory brings Liberty to the Enslaved Peoples of Europe

In the hand of Liberty, the flags of the United Nations are a flaming banner of freedom for the liberated peoples of Europe, too long burdened by the yoke of Nazi oppression. All glory to the fighting forces whose unflinching courage has brought into being the Victory which now thrills lovers of democracy around the globe! All glory to their leadership, governmental and military, which conceived and executed the strategy of Victory. All glory to the peoples of the United Nations who found no sacrifice too great for the final defeat of Nazism. For "We Americans" there is still a final battle to be won: a final enemy to render impotent—Japan. Let us not diminish our efforts and sacrifices, so that Liberty's torch may forever brightly burn—never again to be threatened by force.
