Dies of Wounds

Pfc. Larry Mintling

Another gold star was added recently to Birmingham's service flag with announcement of the death of Pfc. William Lawrence (Larry) Mintling, in a hospital on Saipan. He was wounded February 27 and died March 22. It is believed he was buried in the Allied cemetery on Saipan. Larry was the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mintling, 692 Wallace.

LOCAL MAN HEARD FROM

A recent story in the Lansing State Journal told of the part played by Lt. (j.g.) J. K. Coolidge, former Birmingham man, in a lively PT boat attack on the coast of Cebu, in the Philippines. Lieutenant Coolidge, commanded one of the two boats which attacked the Japanese along the coast. When the other boat became fast on a reef Coolidge took his boat to the rescue and saved the outfit. Before Lieutenant Coolidge entered Naval service he and his wife resided at 849 Highland street. He has been overseas a year.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyce, 613 Pierce street, that their son, Sgt. Arthur Boyce, is now stationed in England. Sgt. Boyce is a tailunner on a B-17 and received his wings last October 1, Los Vegas Army Air Field, Nevada.

Among those graduating recently from an intensive course of basic engineering training at Service School, Great Lakes, Ill., was William Barry Crook, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Crook, 708 West Lincoln avenue.

Francis John Olson, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Olson, 1000 Clare street, Rural Route 4, and John Abraham Fry, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fry, 172 1/2 16 Mile road, are receiving their initial naval indoctrination at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

James B. Conwell, 352 Catalpa drive, was graduated recently from the Naval Air Technical Training Center located at Norman, Okla. He is now awaiting further duty orders, either to sea or to a naval base.

Pvt. The Silens, Jr., writes from the Philippines that his 30th infantry regiment has been relieved of battle duty after 100 days of constant fighting on the fast-changing Jap front on Luzon, and given military police duty in Manila. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Silens, Sr., of 528 Vinewood, say this is the first word they have had explaining the exact location of the 30th infantry regiment.

Birmingham Boys Meet On Far Pacific Isle For Brief Visit

Two Birmingham boys, whose friends who left some months ago for duty with the Marines, have just met on a small island in the South Pacific.

Marine Private Paul (Pete) Gahn, son of Mrs. Heber P. Gahn, 1432 Maryland, and Marine Private Robert W. (Bob) O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. O'Brien, 414 Arlington, left Birmingham at about the same time for war duty but had not met until they found themselves on an island in the fighting zone.

Bob is with the 5th Division and Pete is with the 14th. Bob writes, "It was a happy meeting and quite a thrill to find someone from home." He said he hoped to find his brother, Kenneth, serving with the Marine Air Force somewhere in the Pacific.

In closing he said the boys hope to be "back in good-old Birmingham" within a few months.
