

Maples Cop Eight Places in Meet At Pierce Field, Friday

Copping eight firsts, Birmingham triumphed Hazel Park in the score of 74-30 Friday at Pierce Field to win a league meet.

The vastly improved Maples led from the first event when Jim Jensen, high point man, ran the high hurdles in 1:51; Jensen is still eyeing the low hurdle record, at 1:18 tied twice by him on cold days.

Schoffner gave the few spectators the biggest thrill in the mile. On the last lap Schoffner was fifth and Mick had a 100-yard lead. He really opened up then, sprinting to a sensational finish a few yards behind Mick to cop second.

Eicar tossed the shot at 41 ft. 3 in., his best put.

The 800 relay team won for the first time this season.
