Clover Babcock Is June Bride-Elect

Clover Babcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving R. Babcock, of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, is to be a June bride. Clover has set June 26th as the date for her wedding to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rodney Weeks of Glengary road, Bloomfield Hills.

Jim, who is in midshipman training at the Marine Maritime Academy, will have his commission June 16.

The ceremony will be solemnized at Christ Church Cranbrook, and the Rev. Charles H. Clegg and with a reception following at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Clover has asked her sister, Mrs. Robert Vinton, to attend her as matron of honor. Other attendants are Marjorie C. Lowe, of La Porte, Ind., maid of honor; Mrs. Howard K. Abbott, of New York; Susan Tucker, of West Palm Beach and Mrs. John Abbott, of Dearborn, to be her bridesmaids. Her two nieces, Ann Jackson Alexander and Joan Babcock Vinton, will be flower girls.

Mr. Weeks will be his bride's best man and the ushers will be Jack W. Sanders, Dick Strickland and the Rev. Robert DeWitt, of Uptown.

Charles R. Watts, of Painesville, is his brother-in-law. Guests will include Past Club, Hon. G. Greene, II, James H. Shumaker and James W. Sampsel, all of Cleveland, and Pauline, wife of Gates Mills, Ohio.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Seghers chose a "lavacore" crepe with matching crepe trim and a gold diamond blue crepe with matching lace detail. Both mothers wore orange and pink roses.

Following the wedding held at the home of the bride's parents, the Child Study group of the A.U.C. will meet at the home of Mrs. Michael DePuy, 901 Birkdale, Thursday, May 31 at 8 o'clock in the evening. Dr. Katharine B. Greene will have charge of the program.

The First Presbyterian church Sunday school picnic will be held June 16 at 2:30 o'clock at Springdale Park.

The Past Chiefs Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Frances Hart, 501 Cheltenham, Ferndale, Friday, May 29, at 8 o'clock. William Findley of Royal Oak will assist the hostess.

Audrey Seghers Married At First Presbyterian Church

The wedding of Audrey Natalie Seghers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Seghers of Pilgrim road, to Mr. Michael Van Wart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ryley Wattz of Rocky River, O., was at the First Presbyterian church there. Rev. William H. Patterson performed the service at 8:30 o'clock before an altar adorned with white peonies and lilies.

The bride wore an heirloom gown of imported French brocade and ivory satin and a veil of lace with a jeweled headband. Her bridal bouquet was of gardenias.

Mrs. Claudia F. Watts, of Painesville, O., was matron of honor and the other attendants were Marjorie C. Lowe, of La Porte, Ind., maid of honor; Mrs. Howard K. Abbott, of New York; Alice Abbott, of Chicago, and Mrs. Lawrence E. Nelson, of Beverly Hills, Calif. They also wore gowns of adamantine and matching veils, dresses fashioned with taffeta and roses. The matron of honor carried American Beauty roses and the maid of honor carried pink roses.

Charles R. Watts, of Painesville, is his bride's best man and the ushers will be Jack W. Sanders, Dick Strickland and the Rev. Robert DeWitt, of Uptown.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Seghers chose a "lavacore" crepe with matching crepe trim and a gold diamond blue crepe with matching lace detail. Both mothers wore orange and pink roses.

Following the wedding held at the home of the bride's parents, the Child Study group of the A.U.C. will meet at the home of Mrs. Michael DePuy, 901 Birkdale, Thursday, May 31 at 8 o'clock in the evening. Dr. Katharine B. Greene will have charge of the program.

The First Presbyterian church Sunday school picnic will be held June 16 at 2:30 o'clock at Springdale Park.

The Past Chiefs Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Frances Hart, 501 Cheltenham, Ferndale, Friday, May 29, at 8 o'clock. William Findley of Royal Oak will assist the hostess.
