Baldwin News Letter Goes to Service Men

A Baldwin news letter for servicemen and others interested is a project of the journalism class, which plans to distribute the letter soon.

The paper will be sold at cost to persons who wish to send copies overseas and elsewhere.

A few features will be "Tabs on Teachers," "Sports Show-up," "Service Honor Roll," "Remember When," "Baldwin Hi-lights," and news notes.

Sue Colling and Joanne Chapel are co-editors. Tom Woodhouse and John Folyrdit, sports editors, and Nancy Kotts is business manager.

PLAN CLASS PICNIC

Gilbert Lake is to be the place for Miss Lucille Dower's home-room picnic, Thursday, June 7. The girls were losers in a war stamp selling contest and are giving the picnic for the boys at Jean Busby's cottage.

Lathrup Townsite News

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Mrs. Lawrence Schiek, of Lathrup boulevard, is visiting Mrs. Leo France in Lakeview, Mich. Mrs. Howard Stock will leave for Lakeview next week and they will return together.

Mary Jo Stock, 17, daughter of the Howard Stocks of San Quentin drive, will graduate June 12 from the Little Flower high school. The school will have open house for the graduates and their friends Sunday afternoon.

The James McNetts, formerly of Santa Barbara drive, will have open house Saturday from 4 to 8 p. m. They now reside on Fairfax avenue, Birmingham.

St. Michael Altar society is planning a potluck supper for Wednesday evening in the Duns Scotus auditorium. Members are urged to attend.

The initiation of the members of American Legion Auxiliary Post 407 was held in the Annie Lathrup school auditorium last week. The ritual team of the "Band of 40" Salon 224, made a fine showing in their red capes and white dresses. Mrs. Fordom Niles, president of Post 407, was installed under an arch of flags, the gift of Miss Agnes Barnes, president of District 17. Among other gifts to various hospitals given by the Auxiliary was an X-ray machine to the Percy Jones hospital, Battle Creek.

At the May meeting of Women's club the following officers were elected: Mrs. Roger Baker, president; Mrs. Neil Brannan, vice-president; Mrs. George Burnham, secretary; Mrs. James Campbell, treasurer; Mrs. Guy Peppiatt, corresponding secretary. The annual luncheon will be Tuesday, June 12, at one o'clock at Botsford Tavern.

Professor and Mrs. Roy S. Swinton, of Ann Arbor, parents of Mrs. Vincent Madison of San Jose drive, arrived in San Francisco last week from Santo Tomas prison camp in the Philippines. They were among the 164 repatriates brought home on an army transport. The professor was on sabbatical leave from the University of Michigan when the Japs took the Islands. A daughter, Barbara, and her husband remained in the Islands where he is established in business.

Mrs. James McClelland will be 92 "years young" next October and she has made 1,000 cancer pads from materials furnished by friends. In addition to that accomplishment, she has knit eight pairs of wristlets and about 92 afghan squares for convalescent soldiers during the past year.

Mrs. George A. Paige, East California drive, visited her son, Cadet Bruce Paige, attending Massanutten Military academy, Woodstock, Va., and from there she went to Malba, Long Island, to visit other relatives.

Merry Music Makers Complete The Year's Program This Month

The Merry Music Makers are completing another successful year. Besides the regular monthly program meetings, several projects have been carried on through the year.

The scrap-book chairman, Marily Hart, has entered the club scrap book in the National Federation of Music Clubs' contest. Stuart Scheifele is the cancelled stamp chairman; this is a defense project. The Edgar Stillman Kelley Scholarship Fund chairman is Alyanne Dove and Joanna Tait has been program chairman and Sue Goldsmith the publicity chairman for the year.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Goldsmith, on Lakeside drive. The following members will present a musical program: Carolyn Snyder, Marjorie Boyes, Suzanne Missel, Barbara Gibson, Ann Fielding, Sue Goldsmith, Sally Carrier, Julienne Kelly, Nancy Squires, Ann Huntington, Carolyn Bryant, Marilyn Hart and Stuart Scheifele.

War Veteran Designs Furniture at Cranbrook

Ralph Steen

By the time Ralph finishes a two year course at the Academy he expects to have sufficient furnishings to equip a home which he also intends to design and build while continuing his studies.

Three Birmingham Girls Take Part In MSC Water Pageant

EAST LANSING, Mich.—Three Birmingham coeds at Michigan State college took part in the annual water pageant presented at the college Friday and Saturday, May 11 and 12, by Green Splash, the women's swimming honorary.

Ramona Werner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Werner, 363 Big Beaver road, was one of the chorus swimmers in the program, which has been called "Alice in Waterland" as an adaptation of Lewis Carroll's famous fantasy, "Alice in Wonderland."

The two non-swimmers from Birmingham are Isabel Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Smith, 1211 Humphrey, and Lynn Lyle, daughter of Mr. ad Mrs. Norman Lyle, 1347 Yorkshire.

Miss Smith, who is a sophomore in the school of science and arts, was a member of the group at dancers who presented the "Waltz of the Flowers." Miss Lyle, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and of the Wolverine yearbook staff, worked on the committee handling decorations for the elaborate aquatic program.

Women In Service

FORT DES MOINES, Iowa—Private Mary Agnes Collins, 748 Forest street, Birmingham, Mich., a member of the Women's Army Corps, recently left First WAC Training center here for technical training at William Beaumont General Hospital, El Paso, Texas. Upon completion of this special training she will be assigned to duty in one of the Army general hospitals.

Harold H. McKinnon Speaks To Bloomfield Village Parents' Club

The Parent-Teachers' Club of Bloomfield Village School held their final meeting of the year at 8:15 P.M. on Tuesday evening, May 15th.

The yearly reports of the officers:—Mrs. Ronald J. Waterbury, president; Mrs. M. S. Rosenberger, secretary; Mrs. L. E. Kelly, treasurer; Mrs. Mark Kraus, social chairman; and Mrs. William Larson, program chairman, were interestingly given. Reports were also read from the Boy Scout troop, the Girl Scout troop, the Cub Pack, and the Brownie group, all sponsored by this Parent-Teachers' Club.

Harold H. McKinnon, executive secretary of Goodwill Industries of Detroit and one of the directors of the National Association of Goodwill Industries, gave interesting and informative talk on the "Story of Goodwill." Their work and methods of rehabilitation were told in a manner that made it all very realistic to the listeners. He also gave some of the "highlights" on the Allied Clothing Drive held last month.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. John W. Shenefield and her committee composed of Mrs. Turner Duncan and Mrs. John S. Ando.

Junior Pupils Will Be Presented In Musicale

The following pupils are appearing: Marilyn McKenzie, Geoffrey Lutz, Joan Lang, Bruce Carlisle, Robert Whittatch, Palmer Wood, Angela Shiner, Bill Dodds, Marjorie Boyes, Eddie Bush, John Hickman, Margaret Williams, Howard Johnson, and Bill Mallender.

Willis Wright, Stuart Scheifele, Hildegarde Way, Joe Kubacka, Nancy Dunham, Carolyn Bryant, Joan Currie, Barbara Gibson, Suzanne Missel, Ann Huntington, Sally Ann Dickert, Mary Drake, Sue Goldsmith, Millicent Chapman, Beverly Brohman, Betty Beardsley, Judith Emerson, Arlayne Brown, Helen Woolson, Kit Scheifele, Norma Jean Waterbury, Suzanne Seiler, Carroll Way, Fred Mallender and Phyllis Boyes.

BALDWIN NEWS LETTER

Over 600 students and teachers have subscribed for the Baldwin News Letter to be put out next week by the journalism class. Containing accounts of Baldwin's chief activities and the whereabouts of servicemen and former teachers, the letter will be sent to former students and teachers.

ALL NEWS COPY must be in The Eccentric office by 9 o'clock each Wednesday morning for publication that week. This advance in "deadline" is caused by wartime manpower problems. adv. tf

GIRL SCOUTS

By LEE KASS

Girl Scout Troop 9, Walnut Lake, is welcoming a new leader, Mrs. Cady. The girls are sorry to lose their former leader, Mrs. Schwarze, and will miss her at their meetings. Three Scouts were invested into this troop recently.

Girl Scout of Troop 20 celebrated their first birthday recently.

Brownie Troop 27 at Christ Church Cranbrook has been formed. Eleven girls were invested at a ceremony at which the new leaders, Mrs. Geneva Fraser and Mrs. J. S. O'Gorman, were assisted by Mrs. Frank D. Webb.

The annual Girl Scout penny drive is to be held on June 2 from 9 till 5.

Twenty-six girls from Troop 8 at Barnum school and their leaders, Mrs. Maurice Bell, Mrs. Peter Loomis and Mrs. John Olson, together with Mrs. Willis Mallory, the mother of one of the girls, spent a week-end at the cabin in Springdale park. The girls working on the hostess badge were housekeepers, supervised by June Mallory, who holds the badge. Three meals were planned, and breakfast on Saturday morning consisted of pancakes cooked outdoors on the can stoves made by the girls. Sue Pomeroy had charge of entertainment which consisted of dancing, songs, indoor and outdoor games, stories and imitations. Nancy Howe was in charge of transportation. Troop 8 furnished clothes hooks for the cabin and pat them in during the time they spent there. Although it rained part of time, the girls voted a most successful camping trip.

Sherwood School To Open Summer Camp On Monday, June 25

Plans for Sherwood School's annual summer camp are rolling along. The camp will be held at the Bloomfield Hills estate located on Long Lake and Lahser roads, its lake and streams, playgrounds, meadows and woods providing a natural camp setting.

Starting June 25 and ending eight weeks later on Aug. 17, the camp will have a busy outdoor program for boys and girls from three to twelve years of age.

Dr. Katherine B. Greene, director of Sherwood School, will direct the camp. Under her will be a counselor's school will teach handicrafts, art, music and outdoor sports of all kinds, including swimming. The children will be taken to Pine Lake, in the station wagon, to swim.

Tents will be pitched on a wooded hillside and here the boys will carry on a real camp life as a group by themselves. Girls will be housed in the main building but will spend their days out-of-doors, with at least one meal a day in the open.
