Announce List Of 10 Honor Students

"Orbital to you" was a real comment last night to six senior girls when Frank Allen, business manager of the paper, presented child corsages to Nancy Burns, Barbara Fortner, Carol Grant, Polly Hanson, Ruth Harrell, and Mary Jane Stephens, as the six girls ranking highest in scholarship.

Receiving the corsages of nearly 200 seniors and their guests at the third annual senior dinner at the Community House, Frank announced the winners of the coveted corsages, the gift of Henry Fortner, Detroit, Mich., daughter of the donor, was one of the recipients.

Completing the list of ten honor students of the class are Lloyd Harvey, Frank Allen, William Kimbrough and Robert Poyner.

Seniors Enjoy Big Trip To Mackinac

"Sailing, sailing, over the bounding main," might have been the theme for the seniorship day to historic Mackinac Island and back to the S. North American.

Friday, Weldon MacDonald's ship came in misty hands for the lake was very rough, and those who were not confined to their beds found straggling on the deck better than any medicine! Dangled in their warmest coats, most of the seniors braved the storm.

After dinner Friday night, the ship gave a show consisting of group singing, music, and a magician's act.

Saturday night the schools board ship gave an amateur show, with 12 students participating. Mary Jane Stephens sang "Manhattan Serenade"; Barbara Spillman, "Dreams"; Barbara Spillman, "Home for a Little While"; Guy Schmidt, "Home-sweet-home"; Owen Chapman, "Bill"; Nan Leatherby, "Stormy Weather"; Wilfred Frixen played two selections on the harmonica, and Ruth MacCallum sang "I Didn't Know About You" accompanied by Dale Mills.

Everyone enjoyed beautiful Mackinac and explored its wonders, driving around in "The Survey with the Fringe on Top," or riding bicycles along picturesque trails.
