Something new and different in courts of honor at which were announced some very notable Scout records.

Scouting honor Monday evening at Adams Park, Boy Scout Troop 4, sponsored by Birmingham Lions club.

The new record was the setting for the program. New in scouting records was the fact that 531 of the 57 Scouts received advancement awards every hour. Records advanced beyond the tenderfoot rank and the high average attendance at court meetings. Many a record, those in charge state, but at least a fine showing, was the awards made at the court.

The award was a Scout camp with flag and tent, the stars, Mrs. Apollonia Lee, 1001 1/2 from Birmingham, and a display of Scout handicraft and camp arrangements. Those attending declared this award was well worth their effort.

The scouting record of the troop even surpassed some of the Lions club members attending, but was said to have been set on purpose by the troop committee for these men reported before usually active in their work and to be maintaining close contact between the troop and the club.

Awards made Monday night included Life Scout award to Richard Stall and Star Scout awards to Bill Holmes, Bud Johnson, Jack Adams, Dick Gregory, Jack Noche, Geneville Dance, Ralph Joslyn, Tim Reed, Pete Hartman and Neil Stoll.

On the troop committee are Rolland Reese, chairman; A. S. Johnson; H. J. Nichols, H. R. Strasser, Thomas F. Schofield and Russell A. McBride, Holms as scoutmaster.

Lions Hear About Boys' Republic

Clyde L. Reed, superintendent of the Boys' Republic, a school for boys, located at the corner of Dexter and Nine Mile roads, near Farmington, was the speaker at the Lions Club luncheon on Wednesday, April 25. The school's methods of handling delinquents as related by Mr. Reed in his talk proved highly interesting to members of the club. According to Mr. Reed, the system is one in which the boys are self governed and made to feel that they are a vital part in the operation of the system.
