A.A.U.W. To Give Plays for Children

"The Indian Captive," a play for children, to be given at the Community House May 19, by the American Association of University Women. Birmingham Branch members say it is to be given in answer to the enthusiastic young audience which begged for more when "Peter Pan" was presented last fall. So far, it has been the pleasiest board of directors of A.A.U.W. decided that Birmingham children should have more opportunities of that nature, and plans were made to organize a Children's Theatre which would present several plays a year to juvenile audiences of the city and vicinity.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Stanley Saunders, a group interested in producing plays of this type has been organized with Miss Margaret Ellen Clifford, dramatic coach at Kingswood School, as its director.

If the demand is great enough, three or four plays a year will be given. They may be repeated in neighboring communities upon request. Arrangements already have been made to give a free performance of "The Indian Captive" at the Oakland County Juvenile Home.

Mrs. William Milligan will assist chairmen of the children's drama group in the fall, it has been announced.

Spanish Class Is Entertained

The Spanish class of the A. A. U. W. was entertained last week at a dinner party at the faculty club at Kingswood by the instructor, Miss Martha L. Lape.

Among those present were Mrs. and Mrs. Glen Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ewen, who were members of the class. Other members of the class and their husbands attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scheel, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCann and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Athbone. As only Spanish was spoken and these men did not take the course, their wives acted as interpreters.

Miss La Lape showed movies of Mexico. A book was presented to Miss La Lape entitled, "Mexico" by Fritz Henle. Mrs. Stanley Saunders, who was in charge of the class, gave the presentation speech in Spanish. Mrs. W. M. Milligan entertained the class with humorous readings.

"... come for dinner at seven"

WHEN you extend the above invitation to friends the arrangements just naturally include several details besides the selection and preparation of the meal. And not least among those details is the dinnerware and decoration.

Very likely there are things in our Shop which would brighten the beauty and graciousness of your table; a new centerpiece, for instance—perhaps some new and needed silver; or if your party is to be a large one—the current new note in place cards! At the same time, you would be interested in seeing the new Lamps and Shades we are now showing—to give that changed, fresh note which so frequently is appropriate during the jaded winter season.
