Still Time To Plant A Victory Garden

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Birmingham victory gardeners are turning their efforts to make up for the dwindling supplies of canned food and meat that may be available this summer. Mr. John Gaskill said today, "Nearly one thousand plots will be planted to storage crops and green beans, corn, onions, or a bushel of potatoes that may mean the difference between enough to eat and short rations this coming fall and winter."

A large garden plot is not necessary for a victory garden. Flower beds, back yards, even your back yard is sufficient to produce beans, corn, onions, or a bushel of potatoes that may mean the difference between enough to eat and short rations this coming fall and winter."

Joe Wahl, storekeeper 2/c, of Norfolk, Va., is on furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. Ernestine Wahl, of Lathrup. Mrs. Wahl's services were held Monday at 4 o'clock at the Bell funeral home with Dr. Charles Haven Myer, of Myer's Congregational church, officiating.

Roger Pepper celebrated his ninth birthday yesterday with a party for 32 boys and girls. Refreshments were served. Roger expects to go to Camp Ogallala, Wyo., for six weeks. Roger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Eddie Walters, with Patton's Third Army, medical division, has written his sister, Mrs. Mary Miller, of Birmingham. After a long silence, the glad greetings came Saturday.

Prof. Frank S. Swinton and wife, repatriated from Santa Tomas prison camp, Philippines, visited Camp Ogallala, Wyo., for six weeks. Prof. Swinton and his wife, Mrs. Lydia S. Swinton, are now back in Birmingham. Prof. Swinton's services will also answer questions if gardeners will call 1437.

Red Cross Motor Corps Seeks Paper
