

UNCLE SAM CAN HOLD YOUR PRICES DOWN

Do You Know That After June 30 The Cost Of Living May Shoot Sky-High?

It Could, IF You Allow The OPA ACT TO BE WEAKENED!

The Present Price Control Act (OPA) Expires June 30th

PRESSURE IS BEING BROUGHT TO WEAKEN IT BY

- LESSENING OF PENALTIES
- INSUFFICIENT FUNDS TO OPERATE
- ELIMINATION OF SUBSIDIES

It is true that there have been mistakes made in OPA, and that Price Control and Rationing have been burdensome—

But

Certain foods and many other living necessities are hard enough to get, even under some control. (The meat situation is an outstanding example.) Can you imagine the scramble for these scarce articles IF THERE IS NO CONTROL? Can you imagine what will happen to PRICES if there is no control?

What Can You Do About It? Write Your Congressman TODAY!

Ask him to vote for renewal of the Price Control Act, WITHOUT CRIPPLING AMENDMENTS.

More Than 500 At Doris Franklin Married Girl Scout Rally Friday At Barnum

By LEE KASS
On Friday, May 25, at the Barnum school, the Girl Scouts and Brownies of Birmingham held their annual Scout Rally. Over 500 members of the organization were present, and regret was expressed that mothers and fathers and friends of the group were unable to attend because of the lack of room. The rally opened with the presentation of the colors by a guard from Troop 8 at Barnum school, followed by the pledge of allegiance, singing of the national anthem and the reciting of the Brownie and Scout oaths.

Mrs. Robert F. Kohr, commissioner of Girl Scouts in Birmingham, was introduced by Mrs. George Finch, rally leader, who asked the girls to live up to their pledge. She said "You girls will have the peace of tomorrow in your hands. If you live up to your Girl Scout pledge, I know of no better way to keep that peace."

Mrs. Kohr introduced Mayor Wilmer E. Moody and told the girls that he was truly a friend of Girl Scouts. Mr. Moody then donated the tape for the annual penny drive for many years.

Songs were led by Miss Elizabeth White and the presentation of Juliette Low Funds was received by Mrs. Carl Essery, chairman of the Council. The amount contributed by the troops was $1,009.

Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., directed square dancing and the rally was closed by an Indian tribal dance to the Sun God.

Mrs. M. G. Huntington was chairman of the leasters group who sponsored the rally and her committee consisted of Mrs. Charles Richards, Mrs. Maurice Bell, Mrs. Robert Bruce.

Day Camp applications are in the hands of leaders and the Girl Scouts are asked to see their leader for copies.

Six Birmingham Girls Will Graduate June 9 From Michigan State

Six Birmingham young women will be among the 544 students eligible to participate in Michigan State College's fourth wartime commencement ceremony at 3 p. m. Saturday, June 9, in the college auditorium according to notice today from President John A. Hannah.

The Birmingham group includes Rosemary Ann Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Ward, 1520 1/2 Highway; Janet Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Farrell, 325 Wellesley; Alice Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Green, 7540 Rosedale; Mary Ellen Haack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haack, 1721 1/2 Mile road; Jane Kuykendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kuykendall, 2828 Highway; and Marvel McGill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. McGill, 135 North Woodward.

Other commencement activities at Michigan State include Dr. Hannah's reception for the graduating class, May 31; senior play, June 1-2; commencement dance, June 2; College Sing, commencement glee club, June 3; Lantern Night, June 5; and senior picnic, June 6. Because of the war, all class reunions have been eliminated except that of the Class of 1895 and the Patriarchs, which will be held on June 9.

Doris Franklin Married At Presbyterian Church

Baskets of white peonies, stock and snapdragons decorated the First Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon for the lovely wedding of Doris Franklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Franklin, of Winthrop lane and Pfc. George

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore identical dresses of silver-toned, fitted bodices and square necklines and bracelet length sleeves. Tiny self-covered buttons trimmed the front and the full skirts fell over tulle petticoats. The maid of honor wore Madame Marquise and the bridesmaids wore pale yellow. Their matching hats of tulle had shoulder length veils and they carried fan shaped bouquets of lavender stock tied with purple ribbons. The maid of honor's bouquet was centered with yellow daisies.

Mrs. George P. Stelzer

Pickering Stelzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Stelzer, of Urbana, Ohio. Large areas of green fern interspersed with arrangements of cathedral-candelabra completed the decoration of the church. The Rev. W. Glen Harris read the service at 4 o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a heavy antique ivory satin gown made on classic lines. The plain bodice had a sweetheart neckline, and long sleeves ending in points, trimmed with tiny butterflies of Brussels lace brought from Europe by the bride's aunt. Her veil was originally worn by Mrs. Edward Born Cochran, the former Eunice Giffels.

It was of hand made English lace, fashioned with a tiara and falling over illusion the length of the train. She carried a small colonial bouquet of stephanotis centered with a cream-throated oriole and tied with white shiver ribbons and stephanotis buds.

Alice Neilson, of Buffalo, N. Y., was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Virginia Pierce, of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, Irene Surisman, of Grosse Pointe, Mary Jane Olsaver, of Plymouth and Sally Ann Carney, of Birmingham.

Cpl. George Stearns, of Chicago, was best man and the groomsmen were Walker Moreland, W. E. Moody, Emerson Brown and Carl Beck.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Birmingham Country Club. Mrs. Franklin received her guests wearing a lavender crepe, foot length gown, with a matching boyshair hat with pink detail, and a waist corsage of shattered pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother received with Mrs. Franklin, wearing a lime crepe dress with matching gloves and tulle hat. Her flowers were purple orchids.

Which Pfc. and Mrs. Stelzer left. Mrs. Stelzer was wearing a moss green rhapsodic tulle with white blouse and black accessories. Her small black halo hat was trimmed with rosebuds and green fern interspersed with arrangements of cathedral-candelabra completed the decoration of the church. The Rev. W. Glen Harris read the service at 4 o'clock.

Following their wedding trip the couple will make their home in Arlington, Va.

Virginia Kalbus Tells Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Kalbus, of Washington road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia, to Cpl. William H. Merrill, USAAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Merrill, of Episcopal Canal Zone, former of Birmingham.

Virginia graduated from Smith College this month and will graduate of Pittsboro, N.C., in September. She is now in the Air Corps. They are both graduates of Baldwin High School. Bill is in Birmingham now on a 15-day furlough.

There are no immediate plans for the wedding.

"Russia" Is Theme For Day of Study Group

The City Study group met at the home of Mrs. James Anderson, 709 Southside, Wednesday, May 24, for a luncheon and meeting. The subject for the afternoon was Russia.

Mrs. Wilbur Johnson gave excerpts from the book, "Secrets of Soviet Strength." Both books were written by the Dept. of Canterbury, Hawaii Yokama. The group of women is handling the care of a Latvian refugee child through the Sea the Children Federation in Sweden.
