League Of Women Voters Plan Program For Meetings During Fall and Winter

The International Relations Committee of the League of Women Voters anticipates stimulating and busy months of study prior to the February League meeting when it will present the program of the day, according to Mrs. R. S. Plexico, chairman, at whose home the committee met Oct. 25.

After lunching on sandwiches which committee members brought to the meeting and salad and coffee served by the hostess, the ten members presented the following partial division of work among the committee for monthly study and report:

Mrs. Walter Skinner will report on India; Mrs. F. G. Garrison and Mrs. A. G. Looftourow on South America and Spain; Mrs. H. M. Foley on Germany; Mrs. Andre DeLattre on France; Mrs. Paul Parfield on China and Mongolia; Mrs. V. G. Genn on Japan, Korea and the Philippines; Mrs. Philip Fyfe, the Balkans; Mrs. Charles Ross, Russia; Mrs. W. D. Crim, Mrs. Ida Parich and Mrs. H. R. Gibson will report on England, Australia and the Colonies; Mrs. R. W. Heizer on Holland and the Belgians; Mrs. R. E. Bash, the Baltic and Scandinavian states. These study group leaders would like to have the help of anyone who is interested in any of their subjects and ask those interested to telephone Mrs. Plexico at 2079 and leave name and phone number.

Next meeting of the committee will be on Wednesday, Nov. 28, at 12:30 at Mrs. Plexico's home at 4202 Arlington, Beverly Hills.

Judge Florence E. Allen of the U. S. Sixth Circuit Court will speak at the Backham auditorium in Detroit tomorrow night, Nov. 2, at 8 o'clock at the first general gathering of the Inter-Group Council for Women as Policy Makers, of which the League is one of 23 members. Judge Allen, the only woman jurist ever to sit on a national bench of general jurisdiction, will speak on "The role of women in the political world today." She has been named the leading professional woman in America by several business and professional women's clubs. Persons interested may telephone Mrs. H. J. Liverance for tickets.

Works of Schubert And Schumann To Feature Musicales

The Birmingham Musicales will present its second program at the Community House on November 8th at 2 p. m. The music of Robert Schumann and Franz Schubert will be featured. Chairman of the day will be Mrs. Whiting Raymond. Mrs. H. M. Bringham will be tea chairman and Mrs. Syver Thingstad will be hostess.

Schubert's Sonata, Opus 143, and the Symphonie Etude, Opus 13 by Schumann, will be played by Evelyn Scheyer, pianist. Mrs. Scheyer was born in Holland and studied in Amsterdam, Brussels, and New York. She received honors in the state examination in theory and practice of music in 1928 in the Hague, Holland, and has given numerous recitals in Michigan.

Rose Cooper, a Detroit Soprano, will sing a group of Schubert and a group of Schumann songs, accompanied by Mrs. Royal Mans. Mrs. Cooper studied voice under Jeanne Foure, of New York, and with Elmer Hazard Penock, of Detroit. She has performed for the Tuesday Musicales and other groups in this vicinity.

The Red Cross camp and hospital committee has asked members to contribute fifty-cent gifts. Mrs. Walter Anderson, was service chairman, is collecting the gifts and any members who wish to contribute are asked to wrap them in the contents and bring them to the next meeting.

Birmingham Business Women's Club Elects Officers for Year

The Birmingham Business Women's Club announces that the new officers are Mrs. Howard E. Estes, president; Miss Kathleen Jones, vice-president; Miss Jane Wootton, secretary; and Miss Dorothy Mints, treasurer.

A dinner was recently given at the Community House to honor the outgoing officers. Bronze and yellow colored mums and autumn leaves centered the table and these were flanked by candles in fall hues.

The committee for the party included Mrs. Rose Buck, Miss Alice MacGregor, Miss Jane Wootton, Miss Kathleen Jones and Miss Marcella Ladd.

Entertainment was offered by members of the Detroit Story-tellers Club. Mrs. E. Spaid and Mrs. H. Schneider told stories and Mrs. H. Goodwin sang several classical selections.

Planned Parenthood Groups Will Merge

Board members of the Southern Oakland County Committee for Planned Parenthood, composed of Birmingham and Royal Oak women, met with representatives from the Pontiac chapter at the Community House Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Fritz C. Hyde, Jr. of East Long Lake road, presided. It was decided to merge the two groups under the name of Oakland County Chapter for Planned Parenthood, which will be a unit operate the clinics in Royal Oak and Pontiac.

Mrs. William Calk Allen of Henley drive, was appointed chairman of the 1946 nominating committee.

Yes, you may have "decision trouble"

in Christmas Cards

WHEN you see the beauty and the aptness, and the eloquent sentiments which characterize the personalized Greeting Cards we are showing for the coming Christmas—Yes, you may have "decision trouble."

But that will be only a passing phase of the joy of selecting YOUR cards for the holiday season—for, after you've looked through them you are certain to return to that particular one which is just right, for you; one that reflects your own careful selection and your very individual taste.

Time marches on—and the time for "ending" will be here before you realize it! Why not choose yours now?

La Belles

THROUGHOUT the centuries through days of peace, through trying times of war, and days of peace again, Christmas has stood firm, an enduring symbol of those ideals toward which mankind struggles.

And now in 1945, who can deny that Christmas should be as nearly like the Christmases of other years as times permit, for certain it is that around the Spirit of Christmas the bright new world will be built.

But again this year Christmas calls for planning. Shortages, delivery restrictions and delays are still with us. Preparations, if they are to be as enjoyable as they should be, must be made over a longer period of time.

To help you with your shopping under these uncertain conditions, we are ready early with stocks in substantial quantities and varieties. May we urge you to start now . . . to buy quality, enduring gifts . . . and we'll keep our Christmas merry still.
