

Authority On Flower Arrangements Speaks Before Garden Club

Judging from the favorable comments overheard Monday afternoon at the regular monthly meeting of the Birmingham Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, the large attendance of members and guests thoroughly enjoyed the speaker, Mrs. David Dunlop.

Mrs. Dunlop gave an instructive and inspiring talk on "Holiday Tables and Decorations." She demonstrated her talk with various floral, vegetable and evergreen materials. Her talk inspired new enthusiasm among the members to exhibit in the coming Christmas Flower Show, to be held at the Community House on Dec. 10.

Mrs. Ell Alexander was chairman of the tea which followed the meeting, with Mrs. James J. Ferris, Mrs. George H. Heideman, Mrs. Frank D. Webb, and Mrs. Hugh D. Backus assisting.

The tea table was decorated attractively by Mrs. James J. Ferris. It was covered with a green cloth. Centering the table was a large hollowed Hubbard squash filled with fruits and vegetables.

Old Folks Enjoy A Program of Music

Six girls entertained the old folks at the St. Elizabeth's Home in Bloomfield Hills last Sunday, Nov. 11.

Janet Phillipart offered two guitar solos and played "Autumn Nocturne" and "Schumann's" "Prelude in G Minor" on the piano. The rest of the program consisted of a group of numbers sung by a quartet. Maureen Hogan took the solo parts and Janet and Kay Phillipart, Rosemary Eldred, and Pat Smith made up the quartet.

Among the songs sung were "Meet Me in St. Louis," "My Dreams Are Getting Better All the Time," "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "Kentucky," "Babe's Dreams," "Memories," and "The Achison, Topeka, and the Santa Fe."

Any persons who would like to offer their time and talents to entertain the old folks will be appreciated by all the members of the Home.
