Just the Right Age
ANY child between the ages of 4 and 6 years is an ideal church school beginner. At our church school we call them Beginners. They have a room, service and program of their own. Music, handwork, story telling and lesson study has real place on the typical Sunday morning schedule. And the kiddies love it if your child is of beginner age and not enrolled elsewhere why not let him visit with us this Sunday at 10 o'clock?

Anne Halladay Weds At Ann Arbor

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Halladay of Ravine road of the marriage of their daughter, Anne Tarbell, to Alfred William Alfa, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Alfred Alfa, of West Long Lake road, on Saturday, Nov. 10, in Ann Arbor.
The Rev. Shradly Hill read the ceremony at a candlelight service in St. Andrews Episcopal church at 2 p.m. on Saturday afternoon before members of the immediate families.
The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a golden beige fur trimmed suit with brown accessories and a corsage of green orchids.
Anne attended Mary Baldwin college and is now a student of the University of Michigan. Alfred is a law student at the University of Michigan and is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.
The couple will be at home to their friends at 822 Arch street, Ann Arbor.

Patricia Burke Is Engaged To Lieutenant Charles Lewis

On Saturday, Nov. 10, the Detroit Athletic Club was the scene of an afternoon tea at which Mr. and Mrs. John D. Burke of the Chatsworth Apartments, formerly of Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Lou Burke, to Lieut. Charles Lewis of the U. S. Army.
The bride-elect is a graduate of Denison University and a member of Delta Delta Delta society. Lieutenant Lewis attended Denison University where he was affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. The wedding will take place soon after Lieutenant Lewis receives his discharge.
Patricia Lou Burke

engagement of their daughter, Patricia Lou, to Lieut. Charles Wilson Lewis, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, of Hawthorne road.
White asters and baby chrysanthemums, surrounded with salol leaves, centered the tea table. White tapers in silver candelabra brought light on wide satin ribbon on which the names "Charles" and "Pat" were written in gold.
Little Lisbeth Mason Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tod Reed, of Wintleton road, greeted the guests at the door in a pink dress with a collar of white eyelid embroidery. She carried a small basket decorated with pink satin ribbon and a tiny nosegay of pink carnations and rosebuds. From the basket she handed out cards which bore clever caricatures of Pat and Charlie.
Patricia was assisted by Marjory Walton, Mrs. George Steizer, Barbara Poug, and Mrs. Carl E. Rhoads.
For the occasion Pat chose a gold colored afternoon dress,

Grace Dilley Weds Virginian, Nov. 10

The marriage of Grace Dilley, daughter of Winifred Nichols Dilley, of Sunnyside drive, Walnut Lake, to Lieut. C. L. Haverty, USNR, son of Mrs. Nellie Haverty and the late Mr. Haverty of Norfolk, Va., was solemnized on Nov. 10 at 6 p.m. at the First Methodist church.
The Rev. Arnold Rankin read the ceremony. Palms and bouquets of huge chrysanthemums were placed on either side of the altar, where the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Flot Officer Kenneth Dilley, RCAP.
Duchesse satin fashioned the wedding gown, which was made with a sweetheart neckline, long tapered sleeves and a full skirt with a slight train. Valenciennes lace trimmed the neck and the wrists of the sleeves. The fingertip veil was also trimmed with lace and was held in place with clusters of orange blossoms. White carnations, roses and baby chrysanthemums made up the bridal bouquet. Grace wore a string of pearls given to her by the groom.
Margaret Bertram of Walnut Lake was maid-of-honor. Her gown was of teal blue taffeta with a sweetheart neckline, three-quarter length sleeves, a tight fitted bodice and a very full skirt. She wore a matching hat and carried a sheaf of yellow asters and roses.
Dorothy Crater of Walnut Lake and Evelyn Wippo of Highland Park acted as bridesmaids. Their dresses were of the same lines as that of the maid-of-honor but were pale pink in color. Their bouquets matched and their bouquets were of pink roses and white baby chrysanthemums.
Chief Petty Officer Richard Williams of Davidson, Mich., was best man and Lieut. Gordon Gibson and Cpl. Ray Bertine were ushers.
Mrs. Dilley chose a pale blue tulle trimmed gown with matching colored gloves, and a black hat with fuchsia feathers, for her daughter's wedding. She wore a corsage of asters and roses.
A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother after the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. H. Soule, of Walnut Lake, held open house for some of the guests after church.
When Lieutenant and Mrs. Haverty left by plane for a honeymoon in New Orleans and Mexico.
Mrs. Haverty wore a stunning suit with a black skirt and a black and white checked jacket, black accessories and a corsage of carnations.
They will make their home in Pensacola, Fla., where Lieutenant Haverty is stationed.

Afternoon Dress

Neon pink tulle gown with embroidery and seed pearls in neck, sleeves, and pockets make this exotic afternoon dress.
