

Choir of Christ Church Cranbrook To Give Vespers

At a special vespers service on Sunday, Nov. 18, at 4 p. m., the choir of Christ Church Cranbrook, assisted by an orchestral ensemble, will present the "Requiem" by Gabriel Faure at Christ Church Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills.

death, but upon tenderness, pardon and hope. In the words of one critic, "It is an expression of a deeply sincere and moving grief, yet the grief of a man who can accept death and its terrors in a wide and confident tranquility." As music, this nineteenth century "Requiem" ranks with the finest religious music ever composed in France.

The choir of Christ Church Cranbrook, under the direction of Dr. W. Lloyd Kemp, consists of forty-five voices and at the musical Vespers will feature as soloists Lois Chapman, soprano, and Syrus Thingstad, baritone. Arnold Bourzei will be at the organ and will be assisted by an orchestral group of twelve members.

The "Requiem" will be dedicated to the members of Cranbrook School and of Christ Church Cranbrook who lost their lives in the war.

Thoughtful Oakland Farmer Saves Many Autoists From Injury

A thoughtful and generous farmer, who protected motorists against possible accident and injury during a heavy wind and rain storm on a recent Friday morning, today received the personal thanks and commendation of State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler.

The farmer, Harry Reeves, Route 7, Pontiac, discovered a large tree, felled by the storm, was across the pavement on M. 59 a few miles west of Pontiac. Realizing that unsuspecting motorists might crash into the tree during the blackness of the storm, Reeves, despite the heavy rain and wind, took a lantern and stood guard at the scene warning drivers until Oakland County Road Commission workers could be summoned to remove the obstruction.
