

Speaks To Churchmen City Thankful For Blessings Of Past Year

Thousands Find Way To Church Services During the Forenoon

Episcopal Church Men To Hear Talk By Charles Taft

Charles Phelps Taft, of Cincinnati, the son of the twenty-seventh president of the United States, will be the guest speaker at a special meeting of men in the Cranbrook School gymnasium on Tuesday evening, Nov. 27.

Auto Manufacturer To Address League

George Romney, general manager of the Automobile Manufacturers Association, will address the Women Veterans at a luncheon at the Detroit Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday, Dec. 12.

Ray Sorensen Given Certificate of Merit

Ray Sorensen, T/S, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sorensen, 6121 Davison street, received his discharge on Nov. 7 at Indian Gap, Pa., after three years of service.

LT. HILL OUT OF NAVY

LT. EDWARD J. HILL, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hill, 1827½ 17th street, was discharged from the navy service on Dec. 15.

THANKSGIVING 1945

Publicity for the Institute will be handled by Mrs. Carol Hodges, chairman, Mrs. Charles Blunt, and H. Lee North, Mrs. Hugh D. McLaughlin, and Mrs. Victor Spike.

City Completes Plans For Sewer On Grant Street

Under a proposed plan for opening the Grant street sewer, the average residence lot in the area to be benefited by the improvement is about 112 feet.

Lt. Com. D. C. Egbert Arrives From Guam

Lt. Com. Donald C. Egbert, Birmingham city manager on military leave, arrived home Monday evening at his home, 620 Frank street.

More Groups Back Russell Barnes Day

Still more Birmingham organizations are adding their names to the list of groups supporting the Russell Barnes Honor Day.

RAMS VISIT CRANBROOK

The Cleveland Rams football club members were out at Cranbrook Tuesday making use of the fine football field.

Local Banks Lead Country In Bond Sale

The banks of Birmingham today had received high praise from the War Finance Committee of Michigan for the sale showing made thus far in the sale of Victory Loan Bonds.

Noted Economist To Speak Here On Tuesday, Nov. 27th

Dr. Maynard C. Krueger of Chicago will speak at the Community House at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 27, under the auspices of the "Economic Problems of Peace."

Major John Pingel Speaker At Annual Football Banquet

The mothers of the 1945 Birmingham High school football team have announced that plans are complete for the banquet to be given at the Community House on Nov. 28 in honor of the football team.

Pierce PTA To Give Beneficent Show Friday

"Janie," the comedy presented by the Detroit Civic Players at the Detroit Y. W. C. A. last Friday evening, will be presented in Birmingham on this Friday evening.

And On The Way She Dropped It

"She couldn't find it anywhere, so she came to the Eccentric office and placed this advertisement."

Move Started For Memorial Field In City

The launching of a movement to give Birmingham a Memorial Athletic field to serve as a tribute to the men and women of this city who served during World War II was started Tuesday evening at the November meeting of the Birmingham Board of Education.

Robt. D. Lynd Dies Saturday At Home From Heart Attack

Robt. D. Lynd, for the past quarter century the secretary of the Birmingham Y. M. C. A., died unexpectedly Saturday afternoon at the family home at 367 Forest Hill, Birmingham.

Study Being Made Of Plans For New School Building

The Board of Education, meeting Tuesday evening, accepted the first report of Sarrafin and Swartz for the proposed new high school for Birmingham.

Major John Pingel Speaker At Annual Football Banquet

The mothers of the 1945 Birmingham High school football team have announced that plans are complete for the banquet to be given at the Community House on Nov. 28 in honor of the football team.

Pierce PTA To Give Beneficent Show Friday

"Janie," the comedy presented by the Detroit Civic Players at the Detroit Y. W. C. A. last Friday evening, will be presented in Birmingham on this Friday evening.

Phone 11 Before 5:00 p.m. Today go to work for you

We are numbered with the victors in the greatest war in history - May we and our allies succeed in the hardest job in history - Keeping world peace.

Community Council Arranging Three-Day Institute On Adult Education

Committees for the seventh annual Community Institute, a city-wide open forum on local problems sponsored by the Birmingham Community Council, were announced this week.

Lt. Com. D. C. Egbert Arrives From Guam

Lt. Com. Donald C. Egbert, Birmingham city manager on military leave, arrived home Monday evening at his home, 620 Frank street.

More Groups Back Russell Barnes Day

Still more Birmingham organizations are adding their names to the list of groups supporting the Russell Barnes Honor Day.

Local Banks Lead Country In Bond Sale

The banks of Birmingham today had received high praise from the War Finance Committee of Michigan for the sale showing made thus far in the sale of Victory Loan Bonds.

Noted Economist To Speak Here On Tuesday, Nov. 27th

Dr. Maynard C. Krueger of Chicago will speak at the Community House at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 27, under the auspices of the "Economic Problems of Peace."

Major John Pingel Speaker At Annual Football Banquet

The mothers of the 1945 Birmingham High school football team have announced that plans are complete for the banquet to be given at the Community House on Nov. 28 in honor of the football team.

Pierce PTA To Give Beneficent Show Friday

"Janie," the comedy presented by the Detroit Civic Players at the Detroit Y. W. C. A. last Friday evening, will be presented in Birmingham on this Friday evening.

And On The Way She Dropped It

"She couldn't find it anywhere, so she came to the Eccentric office and placed this advertisement."

Move Started For Memorial Field In City

The launching of a movement to give Birmingham a Memorial Athletic field to serve as a tribute to the men and women of this city who served during World War II was started Tuesday evening at the November meeting of the Birmingham Board of Education.

Robt. D. Lynd Dies Saturday At Home From Heart Attack

Robt. D. Lynd, for the past quarter century the secretary of the Birmingham Y. M. C. A., died unexpectedly Saturday afternoon at the family home at 367 Forest Hill, Birmingham.

Study Being Made Of Plans For New School Building

The Board of Education, meeting Tuesday evening, accepted the first report of Sarrafin and Swartz for the proposed new high school for Birmingham.

Pierce PTA To Give Beneficent Show Friday

"Janie," the comedy presented by the Detroit Civic Players at the Detroit Y. W. C. A. last Friday evening, will be presented in Birmingham on this Friday evening.

And On The Way She Dropped It

"She couldn't find it anywhere, so she came to the Eccentric office and placed this advertisement."