Pierce P.T.A. Will Present Show Here On Friday, Nov. 23

At Pierce School they are thinking of naming November "Pierce P. T. A. Month." Open house, outstanding occasion of the year to bring together all parents and teachers, is next Wednesday evening, Nov. 14, starting at 8 p. m. at the school.

"Jaie," a play produced by the Detroit Civic Players, to be sponsored by Pierce P.T.A. as its big money-raising project of the year, will be presented to a city-wide audience at Baldwin High School Auditorium Friday evening, Nov. 23, at 8:30 p. m.

Wilbur Sears, father vice-president in charge of arrangements for the play project, announces that "Jaie" is a refreshing comedy of youth and marriage in three acts. The Detroit Civic Players will do the play first at Detroit's Music Hall on Nov. 16.

Open House To Be Nov. 15 at Quarton

In connection with National Education Week, the P.T.A. of Quarton School will hold open house in the school on Thursday evening, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p. m.

There will be a brief business meeting to be followed by visits to the individual class rooms. Each teacher will give a resume of the day's work and present the class program for the year to the parents.
