Annual Methodist Bazaar To Be Held In Church Annex

The Woman's Society of Christian Services of the First Methodist church will hold its annual bazaar Friday, Nov. 9, starting at 11 a. m. in the Annex. Mrs. A. W. Herold is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Edgar Eberole and Mrs. Wilson Feldman, in charge of decorating. Mrs. Edgar L. J. Blunt and Mrs. Mark Frank will have the apron booth.

The linen booth is under the direction of Mrs. Farris Smith and Mrs. Willis Mallory. Mrs. Robert Eddy and Mrs. Clifford Harper have charge of the infants booth. Mrs. Mary-Jean Smiley and Mrs. H. E. Bealford are directing the sale of baked goods. The novelty gift booth is under the direction of Mrs. Maurie Lowman and Mrs. Burton Rogers.

Mrs. John Maynard is chairman of the luncheon which will be served cafeteria style in the Church House from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. Mrs. Chas. Olin is in charge of the dinner in the church, 5:30 to 7 p. m. The public is invited to both luncheon and dinner. Mrs. Newell Allen has tickets and they may be secured from group leaders.

The executive board will meet in the Church House Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 10:30 a. m. The Kate Wagner group will be in charge of the dessert luncheon at 1:15 for the general society.

After devotions, and a group of vocal selections by Mrs. Edgar Eberole, accompanied by Mrs. Newell Allen, there will be the election of officers for the coming year.

Mrs. R. K. White will be hostess for a newcomers' tea on Friday, Nov. 16, from 2 to 4 p. m. The Kate Wagner Group is sponsoring the tea, and invitations are being mailed to new guests. Members of all groups are welcome.

Alpha Chi Omega To Hold Celebration

The alumnae chapter of Alpha Chi Omega will celebrate the 60th anniversary of their founding at a banquet at 6:30 on Tuesday, Nov. 13, at Fox and Hounds Inn, Bloomfield Hills. The evening will be a social one at the home of Mrs. George Haldeman on Henley drive. Regular meetings are devoted to sewing on canvas pads for the American Red Cross.

Alumnae who have recently come to Birmingham, Royal Oak or Pontiac are invited to be guests of the chapter. They are requested to make reservations with Mrs. Ward Randall in Birmingham, Mrs. Edmund Rogers in Pontiac or with Mrs. Wm. J. Denman in Ferrdale.

Reservations have been made for Mrs. Milo Bostwick, Mrs. C. V. Crockett, Mrs. Richard Ellerby, Mrs. Robert Nelson, Mrs. G. K. Phares, Miss Marjorie Unger, Mrs. Hollis Holliday, Mrs. Wm. Staver, Mrs. Ward Randall, Mrs. Walter Powers, Mrs. C. A. Page, Mrs. Milton H. Bell, Mrs. Charlotte Dubois, Mrs. S. S. Pierce and Mrs. Arthur Thornberry.

During the war Alpha Chi Omega maintained four day nurseries, one in Detroit and three in Milwaukee. Mrs. Thomas Adams of Birmingham was National chairman of War Activities Service.

Bloomfield Hunt Annual Breakfast

Two weeks ago marked the beginning of the formal hunting at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club. For the first time since the beginning of the war, the hunt enthusiasts have turned out in their formal pink coats.

Last Saturday morning, November 3, was the occasion of the annual hunt breakfast given by the president, Mr. D. W. Candler, and Mrs. Candler, of Wilson road, for the members and their guests. Breakfast was served at the hunt.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Matthews; Mrs. Sally Fortier and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Fortier; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Douglas; Thomas Wilson, master of the hunt, and Mrs. Wilson; Carlton Patterson; Joseph R. Little, Mr. and Mrs. William A. McHaffie, and their children, Janet and Billy; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nichols.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Victor, Victor Hadley, and Thomas Hewlett.

Merry Music Makers To Meet Next Sunday

The Merry Music Makers will meet next Sunday, Nov. 11, at 3:30 with Mrs. Howard Green, 555 Hippo Cross road, Bloomfield Village, as hostess.

All students from the fifth and sixth grades in school who are interested in and are, at the present time, studying music, are eligible for membership. Each member is asked to make some musical contribution during the year.

The officers of the club, who were elected and installed at the last meeting are president, Mary Jo Stenger; vice-president, Julie Kelley; secretary, Margaret Williams; and treasurer, Bud Helton.

The study period for the next meeting will be devoted to the out-of-town symphony conductors of the present time. There will be group singing with stress placed on the "Hymn of Thanksgiving." Hildegarde Way will be the soloist for the program.

'Man' for 16 Years

Miss Frances Orlando, 38, looks pretty blue in Los Angeles jail after admitting she masqueraded as a man for 16 years. Police happened to stop her for routine questioning and got suspicious when "he" couldn't produce a draft card.

Three-Season Suits Made at Home Save Dollars to Buy Victory Bonds

Styles are departing from the very slim, straight lines. A well-placed pleat, a few gathers here and there do the trick. This suit illustrated has a little fullness in the skirt, while the jacket buttons up high to a fitted collar. Such suits will serve well for three seasons. The money saved by sewing your own Victory Bonds will serve you well in years to come. Patterns at local stores. U. S. Treasury Department

May Robert Weds At Evening Service

The colonial simplicity of the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer was the setting for the 8 o'clock evening wedding of May Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts, of East Lincoln, and L. Duane Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Bryan, of Birwood avenue, on last Saturday, November 3.

The Rev. Theodore Wagnar read the ceremony before an altar banked with white chrysantheums.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white marquisette featuring a white lace top and three-quarter length sleeves. Her finger tip veil of tulle fell from a coronet of the same material. The bride's bouquet was of white roses with a white orchid in the center.

Mrs. James Roberts, of Berkeley, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a watermelon pink floor length dress with a matching shoulder length veil and carried a colonial bouquet of tea roses. James Roberts was the best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Roberts chose a street length dress with a black crepe skirt and an embroidered bodice. Her flowers were white carnations and she wore black accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the new Mrs. Bryan chose a grey suit with black accessories.

If your address has just become Birmingham or Bloomfield Hills or Franklin Village

HAVE you just moved to this area? We hope you will like it. We came in 1926, have never regretted it, and feel now as we did then that one would have to travel far to find a region which would be comparable.

It is always a particular pleasure to meet newcomers, and we are always glad that they visit our Shop so soon after arriving; indeed, it is frequent that on their first visit they find here those things which help considerably toward making their new house a home with the least delay.

We are ready and happy to serve you with your Christmas lists. Our shop is overflowing with just-that-right gift.
