Nancy McCarty's Wedding Date Set For October 19th

When Nancy McCarty's fiance, Lt. (j.g.) Edwin K. Snyder, arrived home Sunday after 18 months submarine duty, plans were made for their wedding which is to take place Friday, Oct. 19, at St. Aloysius church, Detroit. The Rev. Fr. David Duncan will read the service at 11 o'clock.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. McCarty, of the Whittier Apartments, Detroit, formerly of Birmingham. Lieut. Snyder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Snyder, of Oakland avenue.

Nancy has asked Darlene Foley, of Evanston, Ill., to attend her as maid of honor and Ann Snyder, sister of the bridegroom, Patricia McCarey, and Ann Gould, both of Green Bay, Wis., and Joyce Wyman, of Oshkosh, Wis., to be her bridesmaids.

The rehearsal dinner will be given at the Whittier Thursday evening, Oct. 18. The reception will also be given at the Whittier.

CONVENTION SPEAKER

Dr. John P. Wood, president-elect of the American Osteopathic Association is listed as one of the principal speakers at the Oct. 13-14 meeting of the association of the American Osteopathic Academy of Orthopedists in Columbus.

Girls Play Hockey At Kingswood School

Hockey is the major sport of the autumn at Kingswood. It is nearing the time for the school team to be chosen and old and new girls are playing hard. Kay Ballantyne, Bunty Hart and Peggy Pittman from last year's first team are back to play again. Whether one makes the school team or not, there is opportunity for all of the upper school in the advanced, intermediate or beginners' groups.

This year Mrs. J. B. McLean, from Glasgow University, Scotland, has as her assistant Barbara Timpins, graduate of Radcliffe and Wellesley, who has come to Kingswood from the sports department of the University of Illinois.

The opening game for Kingswood in the Detroit Private School League will be Oct. 13 when Grosse Pointe Country Day will send its team to Kingswood.

Oct. 25 Kingswood plays at Liggett.

Oct. 30 Kingswood plays at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Grosse Pointe.

Nov. 3 Sacred Heart Academy plays at Kingswood.

The season closes for the League on Saturday, Nov. 10, with a play day for all teams at Grosse Pointe Country Day.

Astronomy Course Is Now Under Way

A systematic survey of the night skies with the big telescope at Cranbrook will be part of a course in astronomy which started Oct. 10 at the Institute of Science. With the instrument the moon, planets, nebulae and double stars will be brought into the observatory class room. Astronomical motion pictures and the study of meteorites and space measuring instruments will add to the interest of the course of which the instructor is William Schultz, Jr.

The class, open to all interested persons, will meet eight Wednesday evenings. Arrangements for registration may be made by phoning the Institute of Science (Birmingham 377) week days before 5 p. m. or by calling at the building.
