Christianity Is Needed By Settlement Schools

An urgent need for clothing at the settlement schools of Kate Duncan Smith, Groesbeck, and Flossie Mainland has been brought to the attention of the Piety Hill Chapter, D.A.E., sponsors of the school.

Regardless of what is sent, a use will be found for it, especially old silk stockings. For their working department, local women are asked to contribute to this worthy cause by taking articles of clothing to the Community House this week or next at the Piety Hill Chapter of the D.A.E. will send them to the mountain settlement schools. Mrs. W. E. High, chairman of the Approved Schools, will pick articles up at your home if you telephone 2018.
