

A.A.U.W. Sale Draws Splendid Patronage

More than 3,500 books and loads of magazines, music and games were collected and sold by A.A.U.W. at the annual sale held in the lobby of the Detroit Edison Company building Oct. 15-20, according to Mrs. W. K. Carter, chairman.

When the proceeds from the sale of paper have been turned in, the total receipts will be well over $500, she reports.

A.A.U.W. offers grateful appreciation to the Detroit Edison Company and its local manager, H. J. Hall, for sharing the spacious lobby, and for the many courtesies extended to markers and saleswomen. And to the many friends who made contributions and purchases, A.A.U.W. proffers gratitude.

Nancy McCarty Speaks Vows At Lovely Morning Service

Before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums and tapers, Nancy Elizabeth McCarty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. McCarty, of Detroit, formerly of Birmingham, spoke her vows to Lewis (L. G.) Edwin Knowlton Snyder, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Snyder of Oakland avenue, Friday morning, Oct. 19, at 11 o'clock. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Fr. David Duncan of Holy Name Church in St. Aloysius church, Detroit.

The bride was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her father. For her wedding, Nancy chose a dress of white lace appliqued on white silk tulle and fashioned with a fitted bodice and slight bustle effect. Her full length veil of bridal illusion fell from a lace bonnet and was held in place by a cluster of orange blossoms on each side. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses and orchids edged with white tulle and satin streamers.

Darlene Foley, of Evanston, Ill., was maid of honor and she was groomed in pale green chiffon styled with a round neckline, full sleeves and bouffant skirt. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of Pinocchio roses and peach colored gladioli, edged with green tulle and satin.

The bridesmaids, Ann Snyder, sister of the bridegroom; Suzanne Mook of Green Bay, Wis., and Joyce Wyman of Oshkosh, Wis., wore identical gowns of peach colored tulle and satin. The bridesmaids had tiny can sleeves and the full skirts of tulle were trimmed with peach colored satin bows. They carried bouquets similar to the bride's and edged in tulle and streamers matching their gowns. Both the maid of honor and bridesmaids wore bandeaus of tulle and satin in their hair.

Patricia McCarty, of Green Bay, Wis., planned as one of the bridesmaids was unable to attend because of illness.

Capt. Charles C. Knowlton, U.S.N., attended his cousin as best man and Lt. Donald Matthews, U.S.A.F., Lt. Richard Bowie,

Hay Ride Feature of Teen Canteen Event

A moonlight hay ride was the featured attraction of the Teen Canteen's successful opening night at the Community House Friday.

A huge Greyhound bus transported the 74 gay young Birminghamites to the stables. Afterward they satisfied their keen appetites with hot dogs, pop, and ice cream at the canteen.

Those who didn't go on the hay ride spent the evening dancing to the music of the juke box or playing one of the many games available, such as checkers, ping-pong, or pool.
