

Women Voters Food Display On W. Maple Attracts Interest

A display presenting the daily nutritious diet of the average American, contrasted with the bare substance one of an Amsterdam, Holland, citizen, has been set up by the League of Women Voters through courtesy of the Avrey Baking Co. in Avrey's window in Sir's on W. Maple, and will remain through Saturday.

The League is using this display as a means of graphically illustrating the need for U. S. financial support of UNRRA, international relief agency authorized to provide food for starving Europeans and Asiatics.

"The Dutch are only one of many starving peoples we could have used for illustration," said Mrs. E. S. Plexico, international relations chairman. "U. N. R. A. needs now the $500,000,000 remaining from the original U. S. pledge; it also needs the U. S. aid and pledge of $1,250,000. Other nations have paid up their share of the pledge. On Oct. 11, in a letter to me from Senator Arthur Vandenberg, he wrote: 'I urge everyone to write his Congressman to urge the proper appropriation be made. Senators Vandenberg and Homer Ferguson, Senate Office Building, and Sen. C. G. Hall, Mrs. Sam Henderson, Mrs. H. J. Liverance, Mrs. E. W. Averill, and Mrs. F. G. Garrison. Pardon for the display were loaned by Baldwin Library.
