She received her discharge from Fort Dix, N. J. last Thursday. Frances is the daughter of Mrs. Alberta Stanley, 435 Madison.

HOLD FALL CAMP

The Boy Scout Camp "O" been recently held at the Royal Oak North Park was a real success. There were about 400 scouts and 20 instructors, representing 26 troops of district one, with around 35 Scouters on hand to do the judging and handle the program.

Birmingham had thirteen patrols entered and seven received the participating award and six the standard award. Church services were held on the grounds for the Scouts. The Rev. Father Barton held the Catholic Service and the Rev. Mr. Bogie the Protestant service.

The Saturday night Camp Fire program was opened by singing, led by the Scouts. A demonstration on fire building from the beginning of time to the present time concluded the program. Capt. George Cook, assisted with his portable electric generator for the flood lights.

Scouts of Troop B-7, sponsored by Pierce P.T.A., enjoyed a week of fun at Camp George, Oct. 20 and 21. Games, tent-pitching, cooking, and chores filled the time to overflowing. Fourteen boys and three adult Scouters shared the camping experience. The adults were: Leader Robert C. Bouse, Committeeman E. B. Painter, and Parent Donald S. Barnes.

Here's Your Chance Youngsters!

HERE'S your chance to answer America's call for more Christian recruits. Uncle Sam needs the help of boys and girls trained to know how to keep the peace that has been won at such a great cost. Just as military training is necessary for front-line duty, so is religious training for peace. HAPPY PEAKING LIVING LISTEN NOW IN THE CAUSE OF CHRIST at your church school. We think you will like the interesting and helpful program of worship and study at First Baptist. Come this Sunday at 10 o'clock. We will be looking for you.
