to go boulevard. The Excelsior reads: "For the second time in four months Miss Reva Elias brings honor to herself and Detroit Branch as the leading woman representative in the Company. Miss Elias, who became associated with Manager Alex Billson's organization at the beginning of the year, is setting a very fast production pace. At the halfway mark in the current club year she not only was ahead of the year's requirements for membership in the quarter million section of the President's Club, but topped the woman's division, giving her the inside track to the ladies' vice-presidency. Miss Elias' first September total of paid business earned her her seventh place among all the company's 684 representatives."
