Local Churches To Observe Missions Sunday On Nov. 11

Dr. Melvine W. Crump, pastor of the First Baptist church, has been named chairman of Birmingham's committee of churchmen to arrange for the observance of "Men and Missions Sunday." This is an annual undertaking and this year the occasion will be, as in previous years, on the second Sunday before Thanksgiving Day. This year the date falls on Sunday, Nov. 11, due to the change of Thanksgiving Day from the last to the fourth Sunday of the month.

Birmingham churches and pastors are already busy arranging their programs for the day, and in most churches there will be lay speakers for a part of the service. Most of these talks will be before the morning sermon.

The topic for the day will be "Christian Missions and World Order." In some instances the pastors will invite a returned serviceman to make a missionary talk.

TWO PAY FINES

Two autoists paid fines in Bloomfield Hills city court Monday on charges of reckless driving. Leroy Erickson, Detroit, paid $35 and George J. Dudley, also Detroit, paid $70 and had his professionary driver's license suspended.

September's Fire Loss Put At $390

Birmingham's September fire department report reveals that the fire loss for the month was $390 including $305 loss on buildings and $25 loss on contents. Property endangered by fire had an estimated value of $115,800.

There were a total of 24 runs made by the department during the months. Eighteen of them were silent alarms, with four investigations, one first aid run, and one special run.

Inspections made during the month totalled 287, with 241 buildings and stores found in satisfactory condition.

Total miles traveled enroute to fires by the department trucks was listed at 50.3.

NAMED TO WEST POINT

Robert Emmons Powers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Powers, 807 Chestnut street, has recently been nominated for admission to the U. S. Military academy at West Point. The appointment was made by Congressman George A. Dondero. Robert came to Birmingham with his parents, from Macon, Ga., about a year ago.

The Golden Text: (Matthew 24: 13) is: "He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved."
Among the Bible citations is this passage—(I Cor. 15:26,31): "But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man also the resurrection of the dead."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures,' by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (427): "If man is never to overcome death, why do the Scriptures say, 'The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death'? The tenor of the Word shows that we shall obtain the victory over death in proportions as we overcome sin."

Supervisors Honor Memory of Veteran Member, J. Brooks

At its recent session the Oakland county board of supervisors adopted unanimously a resolution of respect in the death of Joseph Brooks, member of the board for over 24 years. Mr. Brooks had resided in this section most of his life and enjoyed a wide acquaintance throughout the county.

The resolution, a copy of which was entered on the records of the county and a copy sent to Mrs. Brooks, read as follows:

Whereas, Joseph Brooks, an outstanding citizen and resident of Oakland county for his entire life, consisting of some 84 years, gave a major portion of all his energies to the needs and help of his fellowmen, having served as a member of the Oakland county board of supervisors for over 24 years, and

Whereas, the passing of this respected citizen and former colleague came as a distinct shock to his many friends of Oakland county and to those who knew him intimately in his own community;

Whereas, we desire to officially record our esteem for Joseph Brooks, for his fair and unbiased opinions and for the part he played in making Oakland county a better place to live;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that this resolution be placed on the official records of this county as a memorial to one who served his community faithfully, honestly and courageously, and that a certified copy of this resolution be sent to his wife and family.—Clayton E. Stephens, Alfred Gale, O. P. Giles, Howard Hillman, Frank Shimmons, committee.
