

U. of D. Meets Big Scranton Bulldogs In Game Friday Evening

A crowd of 15,000 is expected to see the University of Detroit Titans test the Scranton Bulldogs in the second game of their 1945 football season at U. of D. stadium Friday. The kickoff is set for 8:15 p. m.

The game will open a new page in the Titans' athletic history. It will mark the first meeting between the football teams of the two schools.

Considerably cheered by their victory over Alma College's Scots in the opener, Coach Charley Baer's Titans will go into the Scranton game with an attack considerably improved by the past week's drills.

The game will be the fifth of the season for the Tommies. After dropping their first two starts to Remondure Polytechnic Institute 6 to 6 and to Bucknell 20 to 6, the Tommies bounced back to spank Lockhaven (Pa.) Teachers 20 to 7. They played the U. S. Coast Guard Academy Saturday.

Coach De Noel, a clever south-paw passer, sets the offensive pace for the Tommies. The 17-year-old freshman, who plays the quarter-back spot in Coach Pete Carlismo's T-Formation system accounted for two of his team's three touchdowns against Lockhaven.

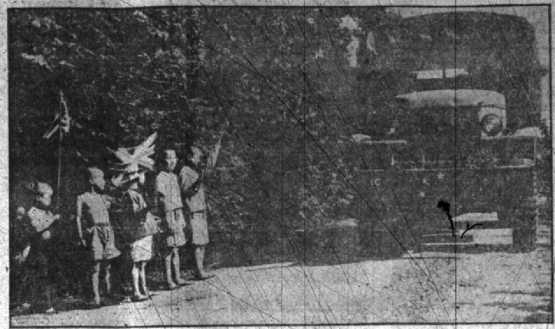

De Noel is rugged enough to be a good defensive player as well as an able passer, punter and ball carrier.

The line stand-out is Capt. Len Modzelesky, 210 pound tackle veteran who may win All-Pennsylvania honors this season.

JUNIOR HIGH WINS

Coach Jack Brotzman's Bar-num Junior High School squad opened its season last week with a 20 to 0 victory over River Rouge, thus keeping the record clear for all three Birmingham teams. The high school won its opening game 27 to 6 from Van Dyke and the Baldwin Reserves opened their season with a 13 to 7 win over Royal Oak. Barnum scored their first, third and fourth quarters. Coach Brotzman starts Ed Yates and Lewellen, ends; Ruck and Pearson, tackles; Wingerden and Joyce, guards; Tammelf center; Murray, Smith, Campbell and Body, backs.

Amenable, These Japs

Very amenable, apparently, are the Japs, this picture of children waving Allied flags at a U. S. occupation truck in Yokohama indicates. Note the "coach" behind the truck with the American flag. But news from Japan seems to tell us that vast numbers, military and civilian, are not convinced they are licked permanently.

Many New Books Just Arranged On Shelves For Public At Baldwin Library

By Linda Moore

Should you see a citizen poking around glassy-eyed, louse-haired, unkempt to himself, chasing his balls down to the first knuckle... to one he's not really a refugee from the looser side, but only has to make an after dinner speech at lodge meeting next week. It has been said and heard speakers rise gracefully to their feet at such a time, toss off a few well-chosen stories and get into the stride of their speeches with ease and dignity. Would present victim could do likewise? But he has no time to keep cooling good stories from the magazines. Where, oh, where could he find a few—just in case?

The answer is—try the Public Library. Baldwin Library has a well filled shelf of new books to be taken by the borrower.

The answer is—try the Public Library. Baldwin Library has a well filled shelf of new books to be taken by the borrower.

"Behold O—Green Mountains," by Richard Boerckel. A book about American forests. The haunting story of a wasted wealth of the effect on the economic life of the country and what steps are being taken to save American forest land from ruin.

"The Great Killers," by Elmer Hynd. The story of the Intelligence Unit of the U. S. Treasury Department. Like the FBI, it does not nearly so well publicized, these men have tirelessly tracked down some of the most notorious scoundrels in the country, putting them behind bars for income tax evasion.

"The Wav of an Investigator," by W. J. Sullivan. Reminiscences of a Federal Narcotics Bureau investigator which makes exciting reading.

"Democracy in America," by Alex de Tocqueville, in 1835, a Frenchman writes admirably of the new democracy in America.

"Backgrounds of Conflict," by Kurt Lewin. A compact, concise account of the five great political ideologies in the world today: Nationalism, Fascism, Communism and Democracy.

"History in the Writing," by the Correspondents of Life. Time and Fortune. Selected news reports by famous news correspondents, from 1841 to 1944.

"Immortal Village," by Donald Calross Featler. Delightfully written, this long-lost story of a minute village in the south of France typifies the whole story of the country. Solid history written like a novel.

New novels on the rental shelf "Linn with the Wind," by Earl Schickel. A January-February novel of the South Sea, complete with maps, feast, barter and a search after buried treasure.

"Three Men in New Suits," by J. H. Pridemore. A fascinating story of three returned English soldiers and what conditions they found in their native village. "The Century of the Century," by DeWitt T. Miller. A history of the century from 1875 to 1925. "The One-Hundred Years of the House and the Wife—John of Deers," by Robert H. Lyman. A story of a New York writer whose wife was made about a hundred times. "The Birth of the Nation," by Robert H. Lyman. A story of the nation's birth. "The Birth of the Nation," by Robert H. Lyman. A story of the nation's birth. "The Birth of the Nation," by Robert H. Lyman. A story of the nation's birth.

OUR DEMOCRACY

by Mat

"For now the corn-horn filled, the harvest home. The invited neighbors to the husking come."

THE HUSKING BEE MARKED THE END OF A SEASON'S WORK—WITH THE HARVEST IN. THERE WAS TIME AND SPIRIT FOR RELAXATION AND MERRIMENT, BASED ON SOLID SATISFACTION IN THE JOB ACCOMPLISHED AND IN THE PROVISIONS STORED UP FOR THE FUTURE. IT IS TRADITIONAL IN AMERICA THAT HARD WORK AND THRIFT BRING SATISFACTION IN THE "HARVEST" SUCH AS PROVISION FOR THE FAMILY'S CURRENT LIVING AND SECURITY FOR THE FUTURE THROUGH VICTORY BONDS, LIFE INSURANCE AND SAVINGS.
