Another Evening of Chopin's Music Will Be Presented Friday... The stirring Potpourri by Frederic Chopin, recently made newly popular by the motion picture version of the composer's life...

Friday evenings. The records for the programs were drawn from the collection in the library made up of some bought by Library funds, some funds given by the Birmingham Musicale and the two thousand recordings given by Mrs. Albert Kahn.

Should public interest continue, it is probable that a series of concerts can be given through the winter. Persons interested in having a winter series are invited to phone or write Baldwin Public Library.
