

Two Christenings Are Held Sunday

Two christenings were held at Christ Church Cranbrook last Sunday afternoon. Martha Ellen Booth, small daughter of the Henry S. Booths of Cranbrook road, was christened by the Rev. Dr. Samuel S. Marquis at 4 o'clock. Miss Martha Sloane, of Grosse Pointe and New York, and Miss Rosemary Thompson, in the absence of the Rev. Robert L. De-

Witt, of Ypsilanti, Mr. Booth was his daughter's Godfather by proxy. Following the christening tea was served at the Booths' home "Thornlea."
Patricia Mercier, tiny daughter of L. and Mrs. Frank E. Saunders, of Bay City, was baptized by the Rev. Charles H. Cutigan. Patricia was named for her aunt, Patsy Shuell, who was her Godmother. Mrs. Frank W. Shuell, Patricia's grandmother, acted as proxy Godparent for John Shuell, who is at the University of Virginia. Mrs. Saunders is the former Barbara Shuell.
(Use the Eccentric Want Ads)

Barbara McCall Seaver

STUDIOS — DANCING

Announces—

The opening of the Fall Term
the week of September 17th . . .

Classes in Ballet, Toe and Ball Room

ENROLLMENT OPEN NOW

298 So. Woodward

Phone B'ham 4244

Layette Essentials

Large Bridge Tea Planned For Oct. 5

The annual bridge tea for the benefit of the Starr Commonwealth will be given Friday October 5, according to Mrs. Frank Klingensmith, general chairman of the affair. Mrs. Klingensmith originated this party for the assistance of this worthy institution at Albion seven or eight years ago. This year Floyd Starr and some of the boys from the school will attend the party. It is hoped that the boys will furnish the entertainment.
Several women are working on committees. Mrs. Whiting Raymond is in charge of ticket sales; Mrs. William L. Graham, president; Mrs. Ruth Saunders, publicity; Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman, decoration; Mrs. Latta W. Porter, tables; and Mrs. Frank W. Shuell and Mrs. Draper Allen will arrange the tea.
Patronesses are Mrs. Graham Jarrard, Mrs. Otto Kern, Mrs. C. B. Wilson, Mrs. H. E. Listman, Mrs. Louis S. Morse, Jr., Mrs. S. H. Mott, Jr., Mrs. E. W. Sahlholm, Mrs. Raymond G. Bower, Mrs. Leslie C. Allan, Mrs. Samuel Israel, Mrs. S. Vincent Norton, Mrs. Fred Sanders, Mrs. Hugh D. Backus, Mrs. George D. Kennedy, Mrs. Martin L. Batsell, Mrs. Howell Curtis and Mrs. F. L. Klingensmith.

'Mrs. America'

Garbed in her royal robes, Mrs. Peggy Payne of Hapeville, Ga., new "Mrs. America" of the Palmetto Park, N. J., beauty contest—sits on her throne after being crowned America's most beautiful wife for 1945.

SOCIAL NEWS IN BRIEF

MRS. CARL H. SANDER, of Filgrim road, entertained at luncheon on Thursday the Board of Chairman of Kappa Kappa Gamma, of which she is Association chairman. This was the occasion for a farewell handkerchief shower for Mrs. William P. Morgan, of Henrietta street, who with Mr. Morgan and their two sons are leaving to make their home in Milwaukee.
MRS. D. S. HASTREITER, of Hanna street, and her daughter, Sue, are leaving Tuesday for Beverly Hills, Calif., where they will spend the winter with Mr. Hastreiter's sister, Mrs. Lillian Lusher.
THE DONALD WRIGHTS, of Lone Pine road, and their four children have returned from New Hampshire where they have been spending the past three months vacationing at their farm.
MRS. D. L. TATE, of Westchester Way, recently attended a state board meeting of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, held in Lansing.
MRS. WILLIAM H. MILLS, of Sumner road, and daughter, Ruth, left Saturday night for Athens, Ga. Ruth will participate in the University of Georgia this fall.
ALBERT WILLIAM SMITH, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Smith, of Puritan road, has left for St. John's Military, Delafield, Wis.
BETTY POSTAL, entertained at dinner and bridge in her home on Orschell road, Saturday evening.
MRS. W. CLIFTON RANDALL, Shirley drive, will open her home on Monday, Oct. 1, when St. Peter's Guild of St. James Episcopal church will present Miss Harriet Harwood, of the L. Rodden Company in a group of book reviews, followed by a silver tea. Program arrangements in charge of Mrs. William H. DeGraf.
THE L. C. COLGROVES, of Puritan road, are expecting Byron P. Colgrove and her small daughter, Barbara Lee, from Palo Alto, Calif., today. They will be accompanied by Mrs. William Lee, of Birmingham and Washington, D. C.
MRS. GRACE MILLER RALNEY has returned to her home in Adrian after spending the summer here. Mrs. R. M. Rainey, of Oakland avenue.
TERRY CLINGHAM has returned to her home in Kingston, Ontario, after spending a week here with her cousin Gerry Flynn, of Pierce street. Gerry left this week for Whitworth Junior College, Minn.
BETTY CORWELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Corwell, of Ferriside street, left Wednesday to enter her junior year at the University of Iowa.
MR. AND MRS. HARRY D. WISE, of Williamsburg road, have returned home from a week's stay at the Palmer House, Chicago. Mrs. and Harry Wise spent several days with their aunt, Mrs. W. Maynard Wise, of East Lansing, at her Grand Haven home.
MRS. FRITZ C. HYDE, JR., of East Long Lake road, entertained the board members of the Oakland County Branch of the Detroit Junior League at luncheon on Wednesday.
MR. AND MRS. E. A. SAUNDERS, of Berwyn road, entertained at a farewell cocktail party Wednesday evening, honoring Mrs. Mrs. E. H. Harrell, who left Birmingham Saturday for their new home near Ann Arbor. Guests were Mrs. W. McCreedy, W. W. Daeschner, and Mr. A. L. Moses.
PATTY KNOWLES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Knowles of Lincoln road, left Monday to resume her studies at Wellesley.

Former Resident Tells Engagement

From Saginaw comes news of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lamb, formerly of Birmingham, who are announcing at this time the engagement.

Club Notes

The Young Married People's Supper Club of the First Presbyterian church will meet next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the church, John Slater, president, and Glenn Berry, chairman of the committee, are arranging the program. Don Price will be toastmaster. Members are asked by the committee to phone their reservations to 4335.
Walter Smith, new president, was in charge of the program for the first meeting of the fall season of the Presbyterian men's club, held at the church dining room last Thursday evening. Following dinner there was a brief business session, with reports of committees, a membership campaign was placed under way, and then the men heard an instructive and entertaining talk by the Rev. W. Glen Harris on his experiences at Fort Benning, Ga., during late July and early August. He was at this big infantry camp when V-J Day came. This was the fourth summer Mr. Harris has spent in Army camps under the direction of the War Time Service Commission of the Presbyterian church.
The Child Study Group of the A.A.U.W. will hold its first meeting of the year at 8 p. m. Sept. 27, at the home of Mrs. E. E. MacGowan, 110 Aspen road. The new leader of this group is Mrs. Richard F. Partridge.
A skit show for the benefit of Boy and Scout camps will be on Wednesday, September 28, by the Junior League and Sales Fifth Avenue. The show will be in the Fisher theater and Powers models and a well known fashion commentator will be in attendance. Tickets for the occasion, Mrs. Fritz C. Hyde, Jr., of East Long Lake road, Birmingham committee member, says tickets are on sale at LaBelle's.
Mrs. Alvin Knorr, 18875 Bedford road, will entertain the members of the executive board of the Birmingham Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association at a sandwich luncheon Monday, September 24.

The KLONDIKE
Junior water-repellent gabardine coat
Alpaca pile-lined
Kashkamb collar
$15.81

The GRENADEUR $14.50
The ROVER $9.95
JUVENILE DOUBLE BREASTED COAT
Leather—wood lined
Water-repellent gabardine
Water-repellent gabardine

OTHER ALBERT RICHARD MODELS
Gabardine or Poplin, water repellent coats of various lengths. Plain or plaid, all wool linings. $12.81 up

Name Committee for Service Wives' Debate

More details were worked out today for the debate on compulsory military education to be presented by the Birmingham Servicemen's Wives club at the Community House on the evening of Sept. 26.
The debate will be opened by Mrs. G. P. Durrell, and Captain Harris O. Macbus will introduce the debaters.
At the close of the debate there will be an open meeting for questions and answers on the subject.
Serving on the committee are Mrs. Delor Westery, chairman; Mrs. Theodore Freeman, Mrs. Frederick Giles, Mrs. Frank Grosvener, Jr., Mrs. Clifford Ransier, Mrs. Harry Henderson, Mrs. James Hodges, Mrs. Allan Haack and Mrs. Paul Glynn.

Women in Service

Cpl. Florence B. McDonald of Birmingham, a member of the Women's Army Corps, was revealed today as being connected with the Manhattan Engineer District, the organization responsible for the development of the Atomic Bomb. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. McDonald of Beaver road. Corporal McDonald received her training at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and was assigned to Manhattan District in August, 1945. Before joining the Wacs in June, 1943, she attended Alma college.
Ruth Cowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cowen, 740 Oakland avenue, recently arrived in Europe with the American Red Cross. Ruth made her crossing on the Queen Elizabeth and was sent on to Paris. At present she is stationed in St. Quentin, France. She entered training with the Red Cross in 1940 and left for Europe Aug. 16, 1940. She was graduated from Baldwin High School in 1934 from William and Mary College.

Plan Election For Elementary Council Of Bloomfield Hills

The Elementary Council of the Bloomfield Hills School will hold its second annual election the last week in September.
Those who held office last year were Mary Barton, president; Patricia Hillman, vice-president; and John Dins, secretary. Representatives included Duncan Patten, Mary Thom, Sue Ann Hall, Tommy Carson, Virginia MacLean, and Tommy Costello.
Nominations for offices this year will be selected next week. Political campaigns are being planned by pupils for their favorite candidates.
An assembly will be held on Sept. 21 for all elementary grades at which time the good points of each candidate will be presented.

Veterans' Officer To Visit City Each Week

Arrangements have just been completed by the Birmingham Veterans' Counseling Center for the assistance of E. S. Carson, the Oakland county veterans' service officer, in a personal visit to the local office in the Community House each week.
Early arrangements call for Mr. Carson to be in Birmingham at 10 a. m. each Wednesday when he will act as contact between local veterans and their widows, children and the Veterans' administration.
The plan has been worked out by Dr. J. S. Laubie of the Birmingham committee and Morgan E. Siple, Post, national service officer of the D.A.V. and regular veterans.
"Buying a Home? Look in the Eccentric Want Ads for a Good Bargain!"

FOR MEN

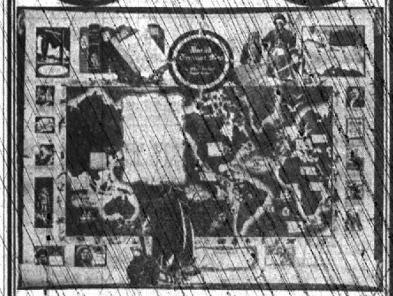

LOVELINESS IN YOUR PERMANENT

WELLA-KOLESTRAL

When your hair is dull, dry or brittle, a permanent wave can't "take" properly. And that's just when you'll want a pre-permanent application of Wella-Kolestral! This is the marvelous cream (with ingredients compatible to your hair and scalp) that imparts new luster and shine to your hair, leaves your curls looser, lovelier, longer-lasting!

VOGUE
Beauty Salon
204 WABEEK BLDG.
PHONE 9115

Free!
THIS BEAUTIFUL WALL-SIZE
Buried Treasure Map
by Albert Richard Sportswear

Come in for your GIFT COPY of this colorful new map!
Mulholland's Men's and Boys Departments

Dresses of Cotton Batiste
Slips of Cotton Batiste
Knit Saques—Soft All Wool
Gowns of Knit Cotton
Wrappers of Flannelette
Crib Blankets—Medium
Heavyweight Cotton
Vests—Knit Cotton
Hose—Sturdy Rib Knit
Cotton
Receiving Blankets of Cotton
Wash Cloths—Knit Cotton
Bibs—Cotton Terry Cloth
Wardrobe Box—Heavy
Cardboard
Gum Rubber Panties
Book—"The Baby"

Mulholland's BABY DEPT.