Formal Assembly For Barnum Junior High Held Fri. Afternoon

The Barnum Junior High School held the first assembly of the year on Friday, September 14, in the school gymnasium.

Following the Call to Colors by Edward Smith and the Pledge of Allegiance, Mr. Robinson, school principal, gave a brief talk of welcome, commending the students for the fine start made this year and the co-operative attitude of new and former students.

The annual custom of introducing the faculty members to the student body was enjoyed by Mr. Robinson and endorsed by the teachers.

Guy Fannin, president of the Student Council, was introduced next, who introduced the members of his cabinet—Tom Campbell, vice-president; Mary Grindley, secretary; and Tim Lind, treasurer. Guy explained the work of the Council, presented some proposed plans and advising home room of the need for strong representation.

Millie Lee Chapman, as representative of the Birmingham Chapter of the National Honor Society, explained the rules of that organization, stressing the qualifications necessary for admission into the society. The other members of the society, Nancy Fisher, Bill Schellman, Margaret Wenzel, Margaret and Maria Berzinger, Virginia Carter, Barbara Hughes, Barbara Ann Van Arman, Virginia Schaffer, Jo Van Wagoner and Elizabeth Whitehaw were then introduced.

Colin Campbell reviewed briefly the athletic program for the year, emphasizing the variety of sports making possible the participation of a maximum of students.

Three trophies presented by the Sideline Quarterback Club of Birmingham for the Junior Olympics held last June, were presented to the seventh, eighth and ninth grade winning home room. Joe Ross and Elwood Hillman, highest point scorers, were chosen to receive the trophies for their respective home rooms 124 and 222. Ed Herron, elementary school champion, received the trophy for ninth grade home room, which is now a new seventh grade home room.
