

YOUTH COMMITTEE PLANS FOR ENLARGED TEEN AGE PROGRAM

By G. R. A.

The adult committee on youth activities held an open meeting at the Community House on Tuesday evening, Sept. 25. This was the first meeting for the enlargement of the youth committee.

Plan Meeting To Organize Workers For Coming Drive

Because of the dual interest of many Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills residents in the Birmingham and Oakland County Fair, Oct. 7 to 31, solicitation of these areas will be undertaken as a joint effort.

Birmingham Wins Grid Opener From Speedy Van Dyke

Birmingham opened its high school football season with a 27 to 0 victory over the visiting Van Dyke last night at the Van Dyke stadium.

Education and Homes Appear to Be Big Concern of Returning Birmingham vets

Education and a home appear to be the chief concern of returning servicemen, declared Mrs. Fred Samuelson at the Birmingham Counseling Center today.

Next Paper Pickup Will Be Oct. 5th

Birmingham's next paper pickup will be on Friday of next week by the city trucks.

Will Buy New Truck

The Bloomfield Hills Commission has just ordered a new truck for use of its street department.

Proclamation

WHEREAS uncontrolled fire, even in normal times, takes a heavy toll of our human and physical resources; and WHEREAS the need for fire and property protection has become more acute than ever in this country...

Residents North Do Not Want Springdale Park Area Expanded

Some of the residents of the area just north of Springdale Park have expressed to the city commission their opposition to the expansion of the park.

Schools Cut Work Week to 44 Hours For Maintenance

The Birmingham school district is placing its maintenance workers on a 44 hour work week.

Three Polio Cases Reported in City

Birmingham health authorities report three cases of polio have been reported in the city.

New Business Firm Is Organized Here

A new business firm was announced today for Birmingham, Michigan.

Church Architect To Speak Here Friday

This Friday night, at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist church, Rev. J. H. Phillips will present an illustrated lecture on "Trends in Church Architecture."

Emergency Gasoline for Oakland County

City Manager Harold H. Corson announced Tuesday that arrangements had been made for emergency gasoline in Oakland County.

City Commission Forwards Letter To Secretary of Labor

The City of Birmingham's official celebration of the coming shortage situation, created by the war, is being held in the form of a letter to the Secretary of Labor.

Draft Board to Retain Offices in Birmingham

City Grants to Free Use of Two Rooms in Municipal Building

The Birmingham Selective Service Board, it is believed, will occupy the second floor of the Municipal Building.

Russell Barnes Is Awarded Highest Military Citation

A news dispatch from New York reported that Russell Barnes, a Birmingham resident, has been awarded the highest military citation.

Exchange Club In Study of Hospital

Larry Black, of Berkley, head of public relations for Southern Oakland County Hospital, is studying the Exchange Club in Birmingham.

Awarded Bronze Star

Pfc. Glen A. Kendall, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Harold H. Kendall, 1233 Boston Ave., has received the Bronze Star for his gallantry in action.

High School A Cappella Choir Working On Program for Teachers' Convention

With its first performance scheduled early in the season, the Exchange Club's A Cappella choir is working on a program of numbers for the junior-senior high school convention.

Church Architect To Speak Here Friday

This Friday night, at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist church, Rev. J. H. Phillips will present an illustrated lecture on "Trends in Church Architecture."

Emergency Gasoline for Oakland County

City Manager Harold H. Corson announced Tuesday that arrangements had been made for emergency gasoline in Oakland County.

City Commission Forwards Letter To Secretary of Labor

The City of Birmingham's official celebration of the coming shortage situation, created by the war, is being held in the form of a letter to the Secretary of Labor.

Action On Gas Strike Asked of Government

City Commission Forwards Letter To Secretary of Labor

The City of Birmingham's official celebration of the coming shortage situation, created by the war, is being held in the form of a letter to the Secretary of Labor.

Birmingham Ready To Observe Fire Prevention Week

Birmingham's fire department is today preparing to lead the city in the observance of Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 7 to 13.

Russell Barnes Is Awarded Highest Military Citation

A news dispatch from New York reported that Russell Barnes, a Birmingham resident, has been awarded the highest military citation.

Exchange Club In Study of Hospital

Larry Black, of Berkley, head of public relations for Southern Oakland County Hospital, is studying the Exchange Club in Birmingham.

Awarded Bronze Star

Pfc. Glen A. Kendall, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Harold H. Kendall, 1233 Boston Ave., has received the Bronze Star for his gallantry in action.

High School A Cappella Choir Working On Program for Teachers' Convention

With its first performance scheduled early in the season, the Exchange Club's A Cappella choir is working on a program of numbers for the junior-senior high school convention.

Church Architect To Speak Here Friday

This Friday night, at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist church, Rev. J. H. Phillips will present an illustrated lecture on "Trends in Church Architecture."

Emergency Gasoline for Oakland County

City Manager Harold H. Corson announced Tuesday that arrangements had been made for emergency gasoline in Oakland County.

City Commission Forwards Letter To Secretary of Labor

The City of Birmingham's official celebration of the coming shortage situation, created by the war, is being held in the form of a letter to the Secretary of Labor.

Action On Gas Strike Asked of Government

City Commission Forwards Letter To Secretary of Labor

The City of Birmingham's official celebration of the coming shortage situation, created by the war, is being held in the form of a letter to the Secretary of Labor.

Birmingham Ready To Observe Fire Prevention Week

Birmingham's fire department is today preparing to lead the city in the observance of Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 7 to 13.

Russell Barnes Is Awarded Highest Military Citation

A news dispatch from New York reported that Russell Barnes, a Birmingham resident, has been awarded the highest military citation.

Exchange Club In Study of Hospital

Larry Black, of Berkley, head of public relations for Southern Oakland County Hospital, is studying the Exchange Club in Birmingham.

Awarded Bronze Star

Pfc. Glen A. Kendall, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Harold H. Kendall, 1233 Boston Ave., has received the Bronze Star for his gallantry in action.

High School A Cappella Choir Working On Program for Teachers' Convention

With its first performance scheduled early in the season, the Exchange Club's A Cappella choir is working on a program of numbers for the junior-senior high school convention.

Church Architect To Speak Here Friday

This Friday night, at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist church, Rev. J. H. Phillips will present an illustrated lecture on "Trends in Church Architecture."

Emergency Gasoline for Oakland County

City Manager Harold H. Corson announced Tuesday that arrangements had been made for emergency gasoline in Oakland County.

City Commission Forwards Letter To Secretary of Labor

The City of Birmingham's official celebration of the coming shortage situation, created by the war, is being held in the form of a letter to the Secretary of Labor.