Silver Tree Presented to A. A. U. W. By Fourteen of Its Early Members

A silver tree bearing 25 silver dollars was presented to A. A. U. W. Birmingham Branch by fourteen of the early members of that organization at its 25th anniversary luncheon in the Community house Sept. 19.

The gift was designated as a contribution toward the completion of the Core Building at the corner of Third and Third Street. When enough money is available, a desk-table is to be secured which will contain a record player and ear-phones so that the fine collection of records in the library may be enjoyed without disturbing others.

Mrs. Wm. H. Jackson, program chairman, had asked Mrs. W. A. P. John to take charge of the silver celebration. Interesting memoirs of the Branch's early years were recounted by Mrs. Charles Shain, its first president.

Early members present were the wives of Mrs. John and Mrs. Shain. They included Mrs. D. T. Stanton, Mrs. Thomas L. Thayer, Mrs. Harlan P. Rowe, Mrs. Louis Hassall, Mrs. Leigh Lynch, Mrs. George R. Averill, Mrs. Zelma Downey, Mrs. Harry Klein, Mrs. Cyril B. Lewis, Mrs. L. B. Billings, Mrs. W. T. Cushing, Mrs. J. Roura, Mrs. Harlow Davock, and Mrs. Hugh Wellman.

The luncheon speaker was Dr. Alice Farwell Crutcher, professor of English at Wayne University and president of Detroit A. A. U. W. She gave greetings from the Detroit Branch and spoke on "Trends in Liberal Education."

Adams P.T.A. Adult Education Program To Begin October 3

The new Walt Disney film, "The Amos and Anselma," will be a feature in an all-movie program to be presented by the Adams School Parent-Teacher Association at the first meeting of the new school year Monday evening, Oct. 1, at 8 o'clock.

The Disney film will be accompanied by several short features. Presiding at the meeting will be Mrs. T. Hollister Mabley, Adams P. T. A. president.

A new feature of the adult education program this year will be a series of evenings of duplicate bridge. The first is to be held at Adams School on Oct. 3 at 8 p. m. Mrs. M. LeQue, contract bridge teacher, will assist and instruct. This course is open to the public each Wednesday. Anyone interested, is asked to call Mrs. Glenn Gossett, Birmingham 3512.

A course in beginning ceramics is also offered with the first meeting scheduled for the evening of Oct. 3. This will consist chiefly in instruction in the making of ceramic jewelry, vases and bowls. Mrs. May Douglas, of Brookdale School, will teach. Those interested in attending may call Mrs. Russell Burns, 3937.

Plans are under way again for the square dances. Mrs. Claude Morrow will be in charge of the first dance, to be held late in October.

The adult education committee is headed by Mrs. Carl Lindvall, director. For additional information, telephone her at Birmingham 4414.

Woman's Club Plans Eight Interesting Programs For The 1945-46 Season

The Birmingham Woman's Club will feature Dr. Hans Leonhardt, professor of history and political science at Michigan State College, as speaker for the first meeting Tuesday, Oct. 2, at 1:30 o'clock at the Community House. Dr. Leonhardt's subject is "Germany."

Mrs. Charles J. Shain's International Relations Class has been invited to attend this the first of eight programs planned for the 1945-46 season. Members are also invited to bring guests.

Mrs. Fred Gross, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, will be a special guest and will speak briefly during the business meeting. Mrs. D. A. Green, music chairman, will present Mrs. Sereck Fox as soloist.

Mrs. Lawrence S. Heintz, program chairman, has arranged the following programs for the season: November, special agent from F.B.I.; December, "A Woman Wrapped in Silence," Rose Walsh (Mary Grove College); January, an open forum, "This Changing World," leader Mrs. C. J. Shain;
