Rotarians and Ladies Hear Thrilling Tales Of Paul Bunyan Days
Maurice Guy, principal of Sargun Junior High School, was guest speaker last Wednesday night on the occasion of the Birmingham Rotary club's annual Ladies' Night. He took his audience through many exciting tales of Paul Bunyan and his Big Blue Ox.

Miles Robinson was program chairman and Louis Haseall cared for the musical program. The latter presented a male quartet composed of Robert Peck, Victor Tech, Dan Robins and Haseall, in a group of special numbers. Then Mr. Robinson sang a group of tenor solos. Mrs. Edythe Crandall was at the piano.

Flowering Crab Is On Its Way Back As City's Own Flower
The program to make Birmingham the "City of Flowering Crab Trees" started by the Garden Club in 1941 and then delayed by the war years, is being revived, and the club has a committee of women who are to make the sale of these flowering shrubs.

Back in the first year of the campaign scores of these trees were planted in various parts of the city and the club hopes to revive and expand this program, encouraging as many home owners as possible to plant this Birmingham flower.

Named on the committee for this part of the project are the following: Mrs. E. L. Gehrke, whose phone is 28711; Mrs. Karl Lutz, phone 2609; Mrs. C. V. Crockett, phone 2793; Mrs. H. W. Thiede, phone 2929.

The public schools of the city are to be asked to have a part in the undertaking and committees are now at work on this task.

KEEP VACCINATED
Not one case of Smallpox since 1902 is Birmingham's record, according to Anyne N. Gillette, City Health nurse, who adds that no one is safe from smallpox unless he has had a successful vaccination within five years. Nurse Gillette reminds parents that children should be vaccinated before they are one year old and that vaccinations should be repeated every five years throughout life. Prevention of smallpox depends on vaccination, she says.

Jim Frank Sells His Restaurant After 20 Years in Birmingham
Remodeling and redecorating of the Pure Food Restaurant on North Woodward will begin in the very near future, according to Paul Limby, new owner of the business.

Mr. Limby last week purchased the restaurant from James Frank, 433 E. Frank St., who came from Detroit approximately 20 years ago to open the restaurant here.

He and his brother Gus were partners until 10 years ago when Gus moved to California.

"I'm just going to take it easy for a while," Mr. Frank said.

Mr. Limby for 25 years has been in the restaurant business in Detroit. He plans on remodeling and redecorating the Pure Food restaurant as soon as conditions permit.

Mr. Limby is married and has three children.
