Embury, Southfield Methodist Churches to Have Special Services

Special services are planned for both the Embury and Southfield Methodist churches beginning Palm Sunday, April 14th when baptismal services for children, youth, and adults will be held, and members received into the Church.

At both churches, Dr. Sidney E. Ewa, Detroit district superintendent, will assist the pastor, the Rev. Jesse D. Epps, in the services. A potluck dinner will be enjoyed by the congregation at Embury Church following the services. To eliminate unnecessary work at the church, each family attending the dinner will bring its own table service. The annual meeting will be held in the afternoon with Dr. Ewa presiding. Reports from the various organizations and the pastor shall be given.

Candlelight Communion services will be held at the Southfield Church Friday, April 19th, at 8 p. m. and at Embury Church on Thursday, April 18th, at 8 p. m. The choir of each church will assist in the services. An offering will be taken for overseas relief. Easter Sunday sunrise service will be held at the Southfield Church at 6:30 a. m., followed by the annual Easter breakfast at the church. The regular Easter service will be held at 10:30 a. m. at Southfield and at Embury at 12 noon. The public is invited to all services.
