

There are many plunders for the abundant life in the Federal government...

SIXTY-NINTH YEAR—NO. 4

THAT

How The Eccentric Got Its Name

"How and why did Birmingham's own newspaper ever get the name 'Eccentric'?"

To begin with, back in 1878 two then young Birmingham men, Amos A. Whited and George A. Mitchell, were operating a general store...

After he had been in Birmingham several years, and hearing to Peoria...

Brotzman Resigns His Teaching Post

One teacher's resignation was accepted, the action appointing three new teachers...

Wardner to Return

George Wardner, discharged from the navy's service with the U. S. Navy...

RED CROSS MEETING

The regular quarterly meeting of the Oakland County Chapter...

On National Board

James R. Adams is Made Director For Advertising Group

James R. Adams, a resident of Birmingham and president of MacManis Company...

Mr. Adams resigned at 983 Kennewick following service in World War I...

Mr. Adams resigned at 983 Kennewick following service in World War I, he entered newspaper work...

Pontiac Man Held For Killing Friend Here Last Saturday

One man is dead and another is held in the Oakland County jail on a charge of murder...

Local Airport OK'd As Flying School For Ex-Servicemen

Ex-servicemen who wish to learn to fly will have the opportunity to do so at a new flying school...

Board of Education Shies Away from Annexation Suit

The Birmingham Board of Education is not going to become involved in the litigation between the Bloomfield Village School Board...

Both City and County Exceed Red Cross Goal

Local Total Already Past $16,500 Mark; Thanks To Workers

Birmingham's fifth drive for the American Red Cross War Fund has exceeded its quota...

"Not only Birmingham but also Oakland county," announced Charles S. Kinison...

The Guild Workers will receive their final call for the solicitation...

Quarion Lake To Be Deepened and Cleaned This Year

Quarion lake this summer may not appear on its surface what it has appeared for more than 20 years...

Ensign R.L. Mosher Killed in Action

News from the Navy Department in Washington last week brought information that the Navy Ensign Robert L. Mosher...

Children's Play Is Being Planned For Birmingham on May 2

A special show for the school children of Birmingham is announced for May 2...

Will Save Fish

While the city has no estimate of the number of kinds of fish in Quarion Lake...

ROTARY CONFERENCE

A number of Birmingham Rotarians have announced plans to attend the two-day conference...

Churches Plan Full Program Easter Sunday

Pageantry, Special Sermons to be Given in Many Churches

The old and beautiful story of the Resurrection will be retold in word, song and pageantry, Sunday in the churches of Birmingham...

Attend Church Services

Honor our Lord and strengthen your own spirit by attending church services this Easter...

Community-House Kick-Off Luncheon For Solicitors To Be Next Tuesday

The personal solicitation part of the Birmingham Community House Fund campaign for this year will open on Tuesday...

Shoppers Receive Extra Bus Service 2 Days Last Week

Birmingham residents who had occasion to use the suburban Greyhound bus service...

Traffic Markings to Be Repainted Soon

Traffic guide lines and other pavement markings are being repainted...

Some Property Owners Just Don't Want Roads Improved

Street improvements, some a village road to a city thoroughfare, they objected to the entire plan...

CAR SOLD IN HALF AN HOUR THRU WANT AD

Mrs. T. when she called The Eccentric's Want Ad Dept. for help in selling her car...

YOU, TOO, CAN GET RESULTS BY USING ECCENTRIC CLASSIFIED ADS

PHONE 11

PART ONE

City To Pause During Sacred Hours Friday

Most all Birmingham places will close on Friday for the usual wide spread observance of Good Friday...

Bloomfield Village Association Names Officers For Year

Election of three new trustees and subsequent naming of officers for the coming year highlighted the annual meeting of the Bloomfield Village Protective Association...

Shoppers Receive Extra Bus Service 2 Days Last Week

Birmingham residents who had occasion to use the suburban Greyhound bus service...

Traffic Markings to Be Repainted Soon

Traffic guide lines and other pavement markings are being repainted...

Some Property Owners Just Don't Want Roads Improved

Street improvements, some a village road to a city thoroughfare, they objected to the entire plan...

CAR SOLD IN HALF AN HOUR THRU WANT AD

Mrs. T. when she called The Eccentric's Want Ad Dept. for help in selling her car...

YOU, TOO, CAN GET RESULTS BY USING ECCENTRIC CLASSIFIED ADS

PHONE 11