Baby Brings Sight

Mrs. Shirley Vetter, 25, shown with her baby on a visit to Washington, is experiencing a providential blessing. In August, 1944, shortly after marrying Bernard Vetter, a serviceman, she suddenly went blind. Physicians called it "shock blindness," said they knew of no cure. But last July, after giving birth to her baby girl, sight began to return. Gradually she saw the baby's outline. Now her eyes are normal again.

Patricia A. Hyland Sets Wedding Date

Patricia Ann Hyland has chosen Saturday, June 1, as the date of her marriage to Stanley James Flot of Detroit, son of the late Mrs. and Mrs. Stanley Flot. The Rev. Melvina Grump will read the double ring ceremony at 4:30 in the afternoon at the First Baptist church.

Patricia has asked her sister, Mrs. Robert C. Gunt, to be mistress-of-honor and her sister-in-law, Mrs. William E. Hyland, of Egores and her cousin, Bea Marie Triggs, of Lincoln Park will be bridesmaids.

Frank Flot of Detroit will be best man for his brother and the ushers include the bride-elect's brother, William E. Hyland, and Walter Zarka of Detroit.

Mrs. Lester Brooker was hostess for the first party in Pat's honor Friday evening at her home in Indian Village Manor. She gave a surprise personal shower for the bride-elect.

The rehearsal dinner will be given the evening before the wedding by Patricia's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hyland, at their home on Telegraph road and they will also be hosts in their home for the reception which will follow the ceremony on Saturday.

Minstrel Show Will Entertain Guests of Presbyterian Men
