

Large Delegation Attending Music Club Convention

The Michigan Federation of Music Clubs' first postwar Convention is being concluded today in Pontiac. Delegates from Music Clubs throughout the state are present for the series of business sessions, exhibits, and musical programs which have been planned.

Birmingham Musicians members who made luncheon and dinner reservations for various days were Mrs. D. L. Tate, Mrs. Henry Houston, Jr., Mrs. Norman Lyle, Mrs. F. Raymond Wolfenden, Mrs. George Marsh, Mrs. Herbert Gardner, Mrs. I. W. Robertson, Mrs.

Earl Bartholomew, Mrs. Harry Weston, Mrs. Warren Uppier, Mrs. Robert Hutchison, Mrs. Kenneth Turner, and Mrs. Lewis B. Seppington.

Mrs. D. L. Tate, who is Lower Peninsula Junior Chairman of the State Federation, was joint chairman of the Junior program which was presented on Wednesday, and which included five of Birmingham's young musicians, Josephine Connor, pianist, and the Baldwin flute quartet, consisting of Nancy Pierce, Dick Robertson, Lois Bloyer, and Marian Adams. Miss Connor and the quartet received first division ratings in the Band and Orchestra Festival which was held in East Lansing last week.

Today, the Choral Ensemble of the Birmingham Musicians will take part in the Massed Chorus program which will be under the direction of Gertrude Heine Greer.

Oakland Hills Will Play Host to Men's Golf Association Title Event in June

Plans announced this week call for the Men's Golf Association of the Metropolitan Area to be decided at Oakland Hills, Friday through Sunday, June 28, 29, 30. Fred Kramer, who won the title last year, will be back in the race for this year's honors.

Sectional qualifying rounds will precede the championship proper. They will be held Sunday, June 28, at Lakepoint, Western and Franklin Hills, the 32 low scorers to continue in match play at Oakland Hills. There will be only one flight, the championship.

A team championship event will be staged in connection with the sectional trials, W. B. (Babe) Crawford, tournament chairman, announces. This takes the place of the district league which has been passed up because the schedule already is so heavy.

New Tournament

A new tournament, a pro-club champions' event, will open the schedule Sunday, June 2 at Birmingham. It will feature such pairs as Chick Barber-Randall Ahern, Horton Smith-Addison Connor, Sam Byrd-D. R. Strigley.

June 9—National Open trials, Plum Hollow.

June 9—District Golf Association sectional qualifying round, at Lakepoint, Western, Franklin Hills.

June 13-15—National Open, at Canterbury, Cleveland.

June 21-23—Red Run invitational.

June 28-30—District championship match play at Oakland Hills.

July 8-9—District invitational medal play at Red Run.

July 12-14—Michigan State Amateur at Charlevoix.

July 19-21—Birmingham invitational.

Aug. 4—Plum Hollow mixed foursome invitational.

Aug. 5-8—Junior District play at Lochmoor.

Aug. 16-18—Grosse Ile invitational.

Aug. 22—Father-son at Pine Lake.

Aug. 27—National Amateur sectional trials at Detroit Country Club.

Sept. 6-8—Lochmoor invitational.

Sept. 11—Club relations at Detroit Country Club.

Adams P.T.A. Plans Closing Events For Season's Program

The Adams Parent-Teacher Association winds up its current season with two functions, a "Barn Dance" to be held on Saturday, April 27, and the final meeting of the year, a program by the Adams School teaching staff, scheduled for Monday evening, May 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Dain Millman are chairmen of the Barn Dance, which will be held at the school from 9 to 12. They suggest that all attending may wear clothing as casual as plaid shirts and blue jeans, if desired.

The L. B. Brennan will keep the party at its usual lively pitch, and additional fun is planned in dances wherein P.T.A. members try their hands as callers. Mr. and Mrs. Frazier Pomeroy have charge of the arrangements for these dances, while Mr. and Mrs. Garland Tait, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ward, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Davis are acting on committees for decorations and refreshments.

On May 6, when the regular Adams Parent-Teacher meeting takes place, the Adams Glee Club will present musical numbers, with a brief commentary by the program by Miss Elizabeth Gottle, music director.

Following this there will be a teaching film on arithmetic, entitled "What Is Four?" with Paul Carter, school principal, explaining modern methods of teaching arithmetic. A social half hour is planned after the meeting.

Richard Speed is in charge of refreshments.

It is also announced that the "Summer Roundup" will take place the afternoon of May 7. This is for children who will begin school next Fall and their mothers.
