“What is this Healing Prayer?”

The practical results of Christian Science have impressed vast numbers of people, including many natural scientists, clergymen, and physicians. The Christian Science textbook, fully explains the prayer, the manner of thinking, which produces these results—helps the sick, supplies the needy, binds “up the broken-hearted,” releases men and women. Whatever their present position, into greater usefulness, security, and satisfaction.

The book is enabling people in all walks of life to prove Jesus' words, “Ask, and ye shall receive, for your joy may be full.”

A book for everyone to understand and use.

Women's club met Monday and the nominating committee presented the following slate: Mrs. Roger Baker, president; Mrs. Arthur H. Stone, secretary; Mrs. Neil Brannan, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Bailey, treasurer; Mrs. Nora Iversen, corresponding secretary. The speaker for the day was Mrs. Frances Boddy, who talked on current events and stressed several biographies as being outstanding. The Ways and Means committee announced a luncheon to be held Tuesday, April 23, at 12:30 in the school auditorium. The speaker will be Mrs. H. H. Hamill is chairman in charge of arrangements. It was announced that $287 has been turned in by Mrs. Thomas Myers, chairman of tickets for the picture fund. Proceeds from the sale of tickets will be used for the veterans of Percy Jones hospital.

Clifford Porter, Waide Porter and Robert Diederich spent several days last week as the guests of Mrs. Harold Hughes of Drayton and Mrs. L. R. Myers, uncle and aunt and grandmother, respectively, of the Porter boys. James Porter, of Delorsa avenue, was in Chicago last week to visit his married daughters and their families.

Margaret Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stone, spent part of her spring vacation in Michigan State visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Davenport, of Evanson, Thylla Becker and Mary Lou Dunn were home from college and returned last week.

Mrs. Charles Bartholomew of Santa Barbara drive, entertained Mrs. Harold Hughes of Drayton Plains and Mrs. Robert Casler of Pontiac.

A surprise birthday dinner was given in honor of John W. Diederich at his home on Sunday. Red and white carnations, and tapers tied in red tulle were the table appointments. Places were marked for 12 guests.

William C. Putnam, Farmbrook road, Southfield township, will be a candidate for the nomination as Oakland county sheriff on the Republican ticket.

Milton McQuarrie is the new deputy sheriff and he is making a house to house canvass to tag unlicensed dogs. To date 906 dog licenses have been issued.

During the past week eighteen building permits were granted for twelve residences, two garages, two improvements, and two stores in Southfield township. Building cost nominal to the amount of $2,000,000 up to April 1, were granted during the year. A building code is under consideration by the committee in charge, similar to that of Dearborn Township, which seems to fit the requirements of Southfield township.

A series of self-guidance lectures is in progress in Southfield.
