Summer Recreation Program Ends With V-J Street Dance

The climax of the 1946 recreation program came on the first V-J day anniversary when the last street dance of the year was held in front of Baldwin high school.

Many veterans of this past year were present, enjoying the hot dogs, ice cream favors, and the music of Alma Morrison's orchestra from Royal Oak, and the records played by the Johnstone boys.

An interesting feature was the large number of older people who were also present who participated in the square dances called out by Clarence Davay.

For the past season, George D. Miller of Fairfax road has been chairman of the recreation board.

THE BASQUE JACKET rates top honors in suits for Juniors this Fall, with the bolero competing. The new 1946-47 versions by New York designers make use of striped men's wear wools, pin-check, grey flannels and bright colors in tweeds and wool jerseys.

"Our Dinner Was Wonderful And Your Inn Is Charming"

—that was the comment of a Birmingham Dentist. "That broiled chicken was perfect." "I've never tasted a finer steak." "I'm coming back for more of those home-made rolls and pie."

These are a few samples of the many compliments from Twin Hearth guests. From a Boston man—"I've been in most of the famous New England inns and I'll say your inn compares well with any of them."
